Frequently Asked Questions

What do I need to do to become a tutor with Literacy Delaware?

Complete an application (link to app)
Provide 2 references
Complete the background check through the invitation link we will provide
Complete tutor orientation and training via zoom

How many hours a week do we meet with our adult learner?

1 to 4 hours per week.

How long will I tutor my learner?

We ask for a 1-year commitment.

Where do we meet our learner?

Either online or in a public place like a library or coffee shop.

Does Literacy Delaware provide teaching resources?

Yes, we provide lessons to get you started until the books for your learners arrive. We also provide quite a lot of resources on our intranet to supplement all your lessons.

Will there be support available once I complete the training?

Yes! We have mentors available to help get started and our staff is available for any questions you may have.

Are there other volunteer opportunities available if tutoring isn't for me?

Yes! There are other ways to help. Please call 302-658-5624 for more information.

Tutor training is comprised of three required virtual training sessions via Zoom. There is also a tech session and an observation of a current tutor that is required. These will be discussed further in the Orientation session.