

Sequanna Taylor is a dedicated public servant, educator, and community advocate representing Wisconsin's 11th Assembly District. A proud Milwaukee native, Rep. Taylor has spent her career fighting for equity in education, access to quality healthcare, and opportunities for working families. In addition to serving in the State Assembly, Rep. Taylor is also a Milwaukee County Supervisor and continues to be actively involved in efforts that uplift youth and families. With deep roots in Milwaukee and a passion for service, Rep. Taylor continues to champion policies that improve lives and strengthen communities across Wisconsin.

Sequanna Taylor's experience and community involvement include:

Wisconsin State Representative, 11th Assembly District
CEO, Open Arms Inc.
Parent Engagement Specialist, MPS
President of the Milwaukee Educational Assistant Association
Executive Board Member of Milwaukee Teachers Education Association
National Education Association (NEA) Board of Director
Ordained Missionary of COGIC
Wisconsin County Association Board
Milwaukee Public School Board Director for District 3
Wisconsin Association of School Boards
CEO, Taylor Legacies
Member of Dream Team United MKE
Wisconsin State Representative, 11th Assembly District

Representative Sequanna Taylor
Wisconsin State Capitol, Room 16 West
(608) 237-9111

Staff: Keshawn Williams

Keshawn.Williams@legis.wisconsin.gov

"You must be the change you want to see in the world."

- Mahatma Gandhi