OVERVIEW

Leslie Pralle Osborn is currently an instructor in Family and Consumer Science at Hampton-Dumont-CAL High School, where she has previously served as an instructional collaborator for innovation and differentiation, co-taught American History and science with a focus on English Learners, and as a student advocate. An ASCD Emerging Leader and one of the National School Board Association's "20 to Watch," Leslie Pralle Osborn has amassed a unique set of experiences and skills in her decade in education. Before returning to the classroom she worked as a member of the Technology Innovation team for seven years, a Social Studies consultant for six years, and as the consultant for Emerging Bilinguals at Prairie Lakes AEA, serving numerous districts across northwest Iowa. Before joining the AEA Leslie Pralle Osborn spent four years teaching 6-12 grade Social Studies and 6-8 grade computer at Northeast Hamilton CSD.

Leslie's work as morphed over time to encompass a larger lens on equity and multicultural teaching strategies, blended learning, project based learning, and student voice. In 2021 she took a position as the President of the Executive Board of Iowa's student voice group, IowaSLI. She has received several awards and recognitions during her time in education, including being named both a Bill of Rights Institute Fellow (2010) and C-SPAN Education Fellow (2011). Leslie served as the Vice President and Media Director of the Iowa Council for the Social Studies, who named her Teacher of the Year in 2012. In 2016 she was named an ISTE Emerging Leader. Leslie is a regular local, state, and national presenter, focusing on designing culturally responsive classrooms, equity, and empowering students through global citizenship, creativity, and connected education.
