Camp Road Corrective Action for Dress Code Violations

Corrective Action will include:

- Students will be sent to BIC and given the opportunity to change into dress code appropriate clothes.
- Students will call their family to provide a change of clothes. If the family cannot provide a change of clothes in a timely manner (45 minutes) OR they do not answer, the student will be provided a Camp Road shirt, Camp Road shorts, or both depending on the dress code violation.
- Pants that are worn to expose undergarments will be zip tied or the student will be provided Camp Road shorts.
- Students who refuse to change automatically receive a referral for Refusal to Obey, parents will be called, and the student will be placed in ISS for the rest of the day.

- Students who need Camp Road clothes will report to BIC the last 10 minutes of the school day to return the clothing.
- On the fourth dress code violation and any following violations, the student will receive an office referral for Refusal to Obey, at which point the district PDP will be followed for consequences. To view the consequences for Refusal to Obey, go to page 8 of the CCSD Progressive Discipline Plan \(PDP\)
