In our Trimtab Space Camp Mission Meeting yesterday, Lisa Kenner said that she grew up knowing Bucky and he was the warmest, most empathetic person. She said she has so many stories she could tell about Bucky. At the end of our two-hour conversation today, she said Bucky would be hugging me.I teared up.

"For First Nations Peoples, the drum represents the universal heartbeat of Mother Earth, the Universal goddess and mother to us all. The first sound that was heard in the world was the heartbeat of Mother Earth. First Nations Peoples manifest this heartbeat through playing a special rhythm on the drum. This Rhythm facilitates healing and realignment of the four realms of human existence (Mental, Spiritual, Emotional and Physical) because the Creator revolves around the rhythm." <http://www.northernc.on.ca/indigenous/the-drum/>

From Ilaria Forte to Everyone: (9:38 AM)

I remember the crazy Van Gogh, he painted days and nights on sacks of potatoes or whatever he found around that might look like a canvas. Be at service of the truth and dare to go with it. As Simone De Beauvoir said „I tore myself away from the safe comfort of certainties through my love for truth - and truth rewarded me.“

From Ilaria Forte to Everyone: (9:39 AM)

Artists, researchers and creators must be free to be at service of humanity and of the Planet. We are all serving the Truth. To do that we need to be independent from financial goals. And, if one works just for paying the rent, it is not a work, it is slavery. We have to break the cycle of submission and domination.

From Ilaria Forte to Everyone: (9:40 AM)

Alignment beyond agreement

From Ilaria Forte to Everyone: (9:47 AM)

The gardener puts as many seeds as possible knowing that some will grow and other not. So, plant as many ideas as possible. Focus is only a concept. The gardener is always focussing on planting lots of seeds and trusting the process of evolution that is embedded in nature.

From Ilaria Forte to Everyone: (9:49 AM)

Abundance of seeds. Abundance of love. Abundance of wealth. Reprogramming for our minds to root out limiting beliefs that hold us back from abundance and also from the regenerative force.

From Ilaria Forte to Everyone: (9:51 AM)

The language I speak and the word I choose shape my thoughts and influence my actions.

From Ashoka Finley to Everyone: (9:51 AM)

Ok so no "Death to Trump""Compost Trump"

From Ilaria Forte to Everyone: (9:51 AM)

Darkness is the other side of light. It is necessary. Trees lose their leaves during autumn as cold weather approaches. Trees do not feel sad or happy about the fact that its leaves are falling. In Nature there is no good or bad. Both creation and destruction, rising and passing away, are part of a whole process of interdependent existence "if this exists, that exists; if this ceases to exist, that also ceases to exist". So, creation and destruction, generation and degeneration, positive and negative are interconnected and exist as interdependent sides of the same whole. Like the sunny and shadow side of the mountain. Now, the nonjudgemental mind is nonattached and selfless, Thereby the experience of the selfless mind is just happening / unfolding to it in its emptiness that is fullness. The third chinese patriarch of zen Seng T'san wrote: To set up what you like against what you dislike is the disease of the mind. This is reconciliation, leaving the judgemental mind to embrace the whole.
