

Georgia TSA FLC Dress Code

Chapter advisors, chaperones and parents are responsible for making certain that all Georgia TSA student members wear proper attire while participating in the events in the Jekyll Island Convention Center as well as the hotels. The board has relaxed the dress code for FLC. Students may wear Chapter T-Shirts and school appropriate jeans and sport shoes are also acceptable as the minimum dress requirements.

However - No shorts, sweat suits, tank tops, muscle shirts, or bathing suits are allowed while in the Jekyll Island Convention Center participating in FLC Sessions.

Advertisements for alcoholic beverages, tobacco products, sexually oriented advertising, or illegal substances are prohibited.

OPTIONAL - Business casual TSA attire (polo and slacks) are considered appropriate dress as well for related conference activities and public appearances. Since adults (advisors, parents, chaperones, and guests) serve as role models at Georgia TSA conferences and activities, they are expected to dress appropriately for related occasions they attend. Conference participants not adhering to the Georgia TSA Dress Code will not be permitted to participate in conference activities.

Georgia TSA dress code requirements listed as follows:

- Friday wear your chapter shirts to show pride
- Saturday wear your GA TSA Fall Leadership Conference t-shirt
- Advisors, Chaperones and Students must wear conference name badge at all conference venues.
- Armada Boat Teams must wear their Armada shirt and arrive a few minutes before their scheduled heat.
