

1. Racist, homophobic, sexist and discriminatory comments with intent and no remorse will result in expulsion which the leadership has the power to unilaterally do following a majority vote.
2. Comments harming the reputation of the party can result in a warning, investigation or suspension
3. Suspension shall include the removal of party roles, privileges and will include further investigation. A different party role be awarded and only the lobby will be accessible. The Party will have a three strike policy, if you do something that warrants a suspension a third time, you will be expelled.
4. Leadership can mandate members to apologise for lower level offenses, if members refuse to apologise they can face further punishment
5. Leadership may request members to not to use MTwitter, failure to not comply will lead to suspension. It remains official party advice to not use MTwitter and focus on commenting on reddit and upping our game on r/MHOC/press where we will actually get credit and modifiers
