Dzongkha Translator

Effective Date: 13 August 2025

Dzongkha Translator ("we", "our", or "us") is a mobile application designed to provide text translation between Dzongkha, English, and over 200 other languages. We respect your privacy and are committed to ensuring your personal information remains protected.

1. Information We Collect

We do not collect, store, or share any personally identifiable information from our users.

However, our app uses third-party services (such as advertising networks) that may automatically collect non-personal data, including:

- Device type and operating system
- IP address (for ad targeting and analytics)
- Anonymous app usage data (such as crash reports and performance statistics)

This data is only used to improve app performance and support ad functionality.

2. How We Use Information

Any non-personal data collected by third-party services may be used for:

- Displaying relevant ads
- Monitoring app stability and improving user experience
- General statistical analysis

We do not store or share any text entered for translation. All translation text is processed in real time and discarded immediately after generating the translation result.

3. Advertising and Third-Party Services

Our app displays ads through Google AdMob and similar ad providers. These companies may collect limited information in accordance with their privacy policies.

You can learn more about Google AdMob's data practices here:
<https://policies.google.com/technologies/ads>

4. Translation Data

Text entered for translation is never stored, logged, or shared. It is processed temporarily for the sole purpose of generating translations.

5. Children's Privacy

This app is not intended for children under 13 years of age. We do not knowingly collect information from children. If we discover such data, we will delete it immediately.

6. Data Security

We take appropriate security measures to protect your privacy. Since we do not store personal or translation data, your information remains secure by design.

7. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. Changes will be posted here with the updated effective date.
