Rating: _____

Explanation:

5. Provide one suggestion for improving the Gallery Walk activity in the future.

Exit tickets are a quick and effective way to assess students' understanding and overall experience with the Gallery Walk activity. As the teacher, you can use this exit ticket to gather valuable feedback and insights from your students.

Instructions:

At the end of the Gallery Walk activity, distribute this exit ticket to each student. Encourage them to respond thoughtfully and honestly to the prompts.

By collecting these exit tickets, you can quickly assess your students' understanding of the key concepts, identify areas that require further instruction or clarification, and gather feedback on the overall effectiveness of the Gallery Walk activity.

Additionally, you can use the exit tickets to:

- Identify students who may need additional support or intervention
- Adjust your instructional strategies based on students' feedback
- Celebrate and reinforce the concepts that students have grasped well
- Plan for future Gallery Walk activities or modifications based on students' suggestions

Exit tickets not only provide valuable formative assessment data but also give students an opportunity to reflect on their learning experience and take ownership of their understanding.
