Through the support of the Conservation Commission and proceeds from last year's WADE auction, WADE is providing a limited number of scholarships for the 2023 WADE Training. These scholarships are for registration only (no mileage or other related travel expanses to from Sleeping Locky) (no mileage or other related travel expenses to/from Sleeping Lady). Each District is eligible for up to $600 through the Conservation Commission scholarships and WADE funds. Any remaining funds will be awarded to districts that can demonstrate a financial need. Priority will be given to those applying districts that have not been able to send an employee to WADE training in the past two years due to lack of funding or who have staff that are presenting or otherwise assisting with the WADE training. A district may request scholarship money for more than one employee (maximum request is $1,200 per District – two scholarships). However, priority will be given to ensuring that we are able to help as many individuals attend as possible.
Scholarship applications must be re
