ISSN/ISBN ***-*
Young Scientists' Conference on Multidisciplinary Research (YSCMR) 2026
Young Scientists' Association, National Institute of Fundamental Studies, Sri Lanka
4th and 26th of November 2026

Paper ID: CMT_

Title of the abstract (Times New Roman, 14 pt, Bold, centre aligned, max 20 words)

A.B.C. Presenting author[1], A.B.C. Co-authors[1], B.M. corresponding author[1*] (Times New Roman, 12 pt., centre aligned, authors' names with initials and surnames, mention the corresponding author with an asterisk mark (asterisk mark should be in superscript) and underline the presenting author's name)

[1]Affiliated institute, City, Country (Times New Roman, 11, italic, centre aligned)

[*]Corresponding email (Times New Roman, 11, italic, center align)

Body of the abstract: The abstract should not exceed 300 words and should be informative to cover background, objectives, methods, results, and conclusion of the study. Please follow the guidelines given for the structured abstract below. Do not include figures, graphs, or citations within the abstract. Any submitted figures or graphs will not be published (Times New Roman, 12, Justify aligned, maximum one page, maximum 300 words, single line spacing)

Keywords: Maximum of 5 keywords separated by a comma (,) which best describe your study (font: Times New Roman, 12 pt, Italic, left aligned, lower case, arrange alphabetically). Do not include words from the title.

Acknowledgement: If needed, any grant/place that was supported for the research but not in the affiliations, only one. (Times New Roman, 11 pt., left aligned, lower case)

Camera Ready Copy – YSCMR 2026