FREELANCE OPPORTUNITIES WITH AsAmNews

SCHOLARSHIP:

NEWS REPORTER: FULL-TIME

Beat: Native Hawaiians, Pacific Islanders and Filipinos in the wake of the Maui wildfires

Position:

Hawaii is working to rebuild communities in Maui that were devastated by the 2023 wildfires. Native Hawaiian, Pacific Islander, and Filipino communities confront socioeconomic challenges, while also striving to preserve their culture. These communities are often overlooked in wildfire response and news coverage. This journalist is embedded in Maui to provide nuanced and culturally sensitive reporting about how these communities are navigating the recovery process.

Salary and Benefits:

Investigative Reporter Fellowship - Los Angeles(freelance with potential for fulltime)

We are seeking an investigative reporter in the Los Angeles area. This reporter would be part of a 5-month paid fellowship program that would also include mentorship and training. There is a small possibility this position could actually turn into a one-year full time paid fellowship with benefits at a major daily. Application deadline is extended until January 3. Send clips, resume and letter of interest to Jobs@asamnews.com

Japanese American Civil Liberties Project

We are looking for at least 7 freelance reporters who would report on a series of stories to document the disappearance of 44 Japanese American neighborhoods in California after the end of WWII. We are seeking written and broadcast quality reports as well as multi-media projects, photo essays, podcasts and oral histories. If you have the skills to handle all of these mediums, you're amazing. However, we are open to hiring different people to handle various aspects of this project to be on our project team.

We are looking for reporters based in the following regions of California for this project:

- San Francisco North to Sebastopol
- San Francisco South to Monterey
- Central Coast/Valley
- San Diego

Please submit resume, work samples and letter of interest to jobs@asamnews.com

Freelance Reporter

We are seeking reporters in every region of the country, but especially need reporters in California, the Midwest and the South. All work is 100 percent remote. Reporters are welcomed to pitch story ideas or accept suggestions from our editors. Experience with WordPress is helpful, but not mandatory. Knowledge of the diverse Asian American and Pacific Islander communities is a huge plus. Please submit resume, work samples and letter of interest to jobs@asamnews.com
