

T.O.S + Commission rules

I'm raven, I mostly draw world of warcraft content and furies, here you'll find my terms of service, when i work on commissions, I usually contact a customer over discord as twitter is unreliable.

If you were wondering, no, I don't have a discord server just yet but I may in the future if it's needed.

To contact, you'll most certainly get an answer faster on discord

Contacts:

Terms of service

Please don't hesitate to message me if you have any questions! I check my twitter, Bluesky and toyhouse very frequently. This is a compiled list of rules you need to follow before purchasing / owning designs / commissioning me. If any of these rules are broken you will be prohibited from commissioning me and/or contacting me, try and scoot around this and i'll be warning others, ok? Glad we understand.

General:

1) Being rude or disrespectful will get you blacklisted, just don't, I'm trying.

- 2) Please be as clear as possible with what you want, being neurodivergent I sometimes get confused with details, so please be patient, i may ask to clarify what you mean if i'm confused.
- 3) If this commission you're buying is for multiple people, you don't have to, but it helps if you can put them in a group chat with me if they're comfortable so communication is more clear.
- 4) Images help me get a clearer idea of what you mean, don't feel shy to send as many as you want so I get a better idea of what you want to see.
- 5) I do not accept A.I as a reference, if all you can give me is A.I slop, you're not commissioning me. Don't get uppity about it either.
- 6) If I am uncomfortable with drawing something, please don't bribe me into drawing it.
- 7) I usually post commission slots in google forms, and thus if there's enough people I pick who gets a slot, based on how quick and manageable it'll be with my schedule and avoiding burn out to the best of my abilities, if you aren't picked, i'm sorry, i'm trying to juggle art on top of my studies.

Posting:

- 1) When posting completed commissions, I'd very much appreciate it if I was credited, of course you don't have to, but it helps me and my hobby :)
- 2) When I send wips, I'd very much appreciate it if I was asked before you post it. Most of the time I'd say yes, but I'd appreciate it if I was asked, again.
- 3) Commissions I make will be used as examples and posted on both bluesky and twitter (X). If you wish to keep it private, that is an option but please clarify that with me beforehand.
- 4) If someone is copying my work, please don't go out of your way to harass them, they're learning, and if my art is helping them learn so be it.
- 5) I will not sell to minors. Don't really need to explain further.

Payments:

- 1) After I receive references and such, I will usually send an invoice to your email, and upfront only, please understand that I only accept payment upfront, if you are not comfortable with that don't commission me.
- 2) I only accept payments in euro, and on paypal, i will not accept any other method of pay.
- 3) Please don't try to haggle prices with me. I charge based on the time, effort and work put in on my part, so I find this very disrespectful. If you struggle with managing money that much, why commission at all if you know you're going to struggle to pay?
- 4) I don't do payment plans. As I said in 3), i dont think a commission is your priority if you can't pay me upfront.
- 5) If you file a chargeback on paypal, you will be called out for it, this is unacceptable and rude, and damages me financially beyond description, this also puts my paypal account at risk of termination.
- 6) If you want a refund, please note that I'll only deliver one if it's reasonable. If I haven't made progress within a month, you will be entitled to a refund.
- 7) I will not refund you if you suddenly decide 'i don't want it anymore' or 'i need the money back im sorry :((' if i already started, don't start.

Prohibited themes

Anything listed under 'blacklisted themes' I WILL NOT CREATE under ANY circumstances, and i don't need to explain why, thank you. If you try guiltting me in ANY way to draw these things you're blocked.
