ABSTRACT

Abstracts are written in English. Font Garamond (10 pt), written model Italic. Abstracts preferably not more than 300 words. The abstract should be clear, concise, and descriptive. This abstract should provide a brief introduction to the problem, objective of paper, followed by a statement regarding the methodology and a brief summary of results.

For example:

This article analyses the competition law related to abuse of a dominant market position using strategy of predatory pricing by undertakings in the European Union (EU). The purpose of this article is to survey predatory pricing as a phenomenon both within and outside the EU. This article uses normative legal research. The findings proved that undertakings who achieved their dominant position before the recession have significant advantage over smaller undertakings. However, they cannot necessarily afford to act on the same basis for long, which is why a model closer to that of the United States would be of benefit to control some behaviours of these undertakings.
