

Global Book Bag

Title: Eyes that Kiss in the Corners

Author: Joanna Ho

Global Competence: Recognize the value of each person in a global community.

A young Asian girl notices that her eyes look different from her peers'. They have big, round eyes and long lashes. She realizes that her eyes are like her mother's, her grandmother's, and her little sister's. They have eyes that kiss in the corners and glow like warm tea, crinkle into crescent moons, and are filled with stories of the past and hope for the future.

Virtual Library Shelf

<https://bit.ly/3gIXAUV>

Bag Contents:

- Notebook
- Pencil

Directions:

- With an adult in your home, read the book or watch the read aloud.
- Open the notebook to the next blank page.
- Write your name and the date on the top.

The young girl in the book loves her eyes because they make her special and connect her to her family. What is something that you love about yourself?

In your journal complete the sentence,

I love _____ about myself because _____.

Under the sentence draw a picture of what you love about yourself.

Keep Learning! (optional)

1. Watch this read aloud of a book called Hair Love about a girl who learns to loves her hair
<https://bit.ly/3zLuMCN>
2. Write a review of the book to share with your classmates!
3. Discuss what it means to recognize the value of each person in a global community.

