Arellano Felix Farms.

Carlos, Antonio and josue had a farmhouse and decided to put use into it. they started repainting the farmhouse bright red with white doors, they then built a fence around the farm for animals to freely walk in.

Four months passed by and Carlos was put into debt, Josue and Antonio gave up on the farm, leaving Carlos in a tough spot.

Carlos eventually tried taking loans out from the bank near his farm, they declined Carlos due to his look started taking loans out from other syndicates in the area around him, which made him pissed off and decided to quit the farm life and go straight into the criminal life once more.

One evening Carlos got paid a visit by 2 thugs that were sent by a syndicate he recently loaned money from.

Carlos gave them the 25.000$ he owed and said " now fuck off and take your shit money." which angered the thugs. The 2 thugs left Carlos' house. 2 weeks passed, Carlos and Josue were sitting at Carlo's house talking about how they would make a lot of money in the next few years, when suddenly bang bang bang can be heard outside, Carlos and Josue laid flat onto the ground, bullets can be heard whistling near their heads.

A whole 5 minutes of automatic rifles shot into Carlos' house and both Carlos and Josue made it out alive, Carlos being shot in the hand and Josue being shot in his leg, both injuries were not severe, Carlos and Josue eventually recovered and bought 2 hotel rooms for the month.

Months went by, Carlos Went into rehab to stop his abusive drug use and help his cousins out with a job and money. Carlos needed the money and so did his cousins.

He reached out to Antonio and Josue Arellano Felix, Josue being the uncle of Carlos, and Antonio being his younger brother.

Carlos Was working with Antonio and Josue one morning hauling weaponry to tijuana

To fulfill a deal made with a local gang, they had just made it into tijuana and have gotten pulled over, Carlos immediately got out the passenger end, punched an officer, and sped to the other cop and also punched him, both cops knocked out on the ground, carlos tells the cousins to take the delivery to the destination as he hops in the cop car and follows them in it, eventually the federales caught up to Carlos, Pitted him, and cuffed him, carlos let them take him in and eventually arrested for grand theft auto, aggravated assault, felony evading arrest.

Cartel De Tijuana Moving Into Southside

With The trio moving into the states, they decided to move into the southside of new york, things felt right, they felt the need to start their base of operations Slowly, carefully and smoothly.

With that being said, Carlos decided to buy and sell drugs on the down low, making sure anybody that tried pulling one over on him, wouldn't live to see the next moon.

Friendly faces in southside

With the cartel de tijuana trying to make a name for themselves, 2 people that Carlos would call mentors, Cleo And Dante.

Cleo And Dante.

These 2 people helped Carlos with making money.

Dante Mentor's Carlos into making small arms pistols like the Sig p226 and gave him some money to start up a decent operation.

Cleo Met up with Carlos and decided to discuss Business, watching out for each other's basic needs, making sure money flows constantly within both syndicates.

After the two talked business, Carlos immediately went to selling drugs, from shipping Meth in and out of southside.

How To Hide A Body 101

For Carlos, hiding bodies was his passion, he either left them out in the open with no evidence of him being there, Or he would dump the fucks in acid, making sure they suffered for what they did, either way, he enjoyed it, every single bit...but for some reason Carlos would cook up some of the victims meat and feed it to someone he has in his hit list, Kind of weird right?

If Carlos feels extra tho, he will skin the victim and send his skin to either the victims gang leader or family, depending on how things went.

Step one: Dismantle/Dismember the victim.

Step Two: Put the victim in a bag.

Step Three: Burn victim in a fire, preferably a huge fire.

Step Four: Enjoy Life Again.

Legal Front Situation

Carlos wants to start a legal business, to help hide his illegal business, like Restaurant or Bar, but he never had the resources to do so until he moved to southside, there were many open buildings that seemed emptied, or so he thought.

Many businesses were open but had very few employees working the store, why? You probably guessed it, the rest are doing God's dirty work.

While Carlos was looking for a building to buy in the near future, he spotted a small laundromat next to little Italy, and a warehouse inside the shipping docks, he thought if no company owns that yet, he can save up all the money he has, and buy himself one of the 2 buildings, who knows? Maybe he will buy two buildings?

The ending of Carlos Arellano Felix's Backstory.

The date is Sept. 21st 1988, Carlos immediately woke up and decided to talk business with other people in southside. Carlos couldn't go far Because he already made potential enemies, italians? Possibly, Irish? Has to be.

Carlos got into a street fight one morning and sadly Accepted defeat. Carlos has started carrying a pistol and kitchen knife for both defense and offense.

Cartel de tijuana's possible Show in southside

With all due respect, once the cartel de tijuana makes a stand in southside, it might be small but they are Fearless. From Large groups of cartel members robbing you, to putting you into a hostage situation, cartel de tijuana might just make it all happen.

David Arellano Felix's Story.

David was the father of Carlos, he kept good care of Carlos up until he was 18, when he got brutally shot down in his own home.

David always borrowed money from a local syndicate to help his family out. He was always able to pay his bill until one month when he got fired from a brewery in his town.

The Syndicate decided to send a Thug over to David's house to get the money, when he sat down with David, David explained to him how he couldn't pay him due to his brewery firing him, the guy decided to get up and leave with the information he has.

A week went by and the syndicate sent another thug over to David's house to confront him about their money, although this time his Son and nephews were nowhere near the house.

David was scared, the thug entered his home in a violent manner, broke some of their items, furniture and even beat David up until he was bleeding. The thug went outside and met up with 4 of his guys, all armed with shotguns and Assault rifles, aimed towards the house and opened fire on it, shooting and killing both David and his Wife.

Josue Arellano Felix.

Josue wasn't new to the criminal world, when he was 18, he made his first big deal with a street gang and all was successful, they liked him and decided to make him a part of their supply chain.

Josue grew up close with Carlos, teaching him the good and bad of life, What to do and what not to do.

Josue also taught Carlos about drugs and guns at the age of 18, how to sell them. make them. Anything he would need to know about the underworld.

Josue was known for his wicked temper, having bar fights with drunks or taunting the police, anything to get a kick out of life, although he seemed a bit too hot headed during fist fights and sometimes left imprints in his victims body.
