Cancellations by Students

- If a student wishes to cancel his/her place on a Duncan Murray Wines course Duncan Murray Wines will refund up 50% of the cost of the course if the cancellation is made 15 working days or longer before the date of the course.
- If any cancellation is made with less than 15 working days to the date of the course no monies will be refunded.

Cancellations by Duncan Murray Wines

- If Duncan Murray Wines cancels a course it was scheduled to hold, all monies paid by prospective students towards that course will be refunded to the students by Duncan Murray Wines in full.

- If Duncan Murray Wines has to re-schedule a course for a date different to that advertised it will, where possible, consult students who have paid monies towards that course, to find a more suitable date. Where a more suitable date is not possible, or if a consultation was not possible, all monies paid by those students will be refunded in full.
- If a rescheduled date is possible but one or more of the students can't make that revised date a full refund of monies paid will be made to those students.

Disability/Reasonable Adjustments Examinations Requests

The examination will take place as the final session of the course. You will not have to attend any additional days or evenings for the examination unless you have been granted 'reasonable adjustments' for your examination and choose an alternative date. Requests for reasonable adjustments must be made 25 working days prior to the examination date. Upon request a form will be sent to you to complete and return (which must be within 5 working days of receipt) with the required supporting evidence for submission. The form will be sent to WSET Awards for approval.

Students taking examinations with agreed reasonable adjustments may be given an option to attend on alternative examination date – details of available dates will be advised by Student Services and a separate confirmation of your examination date will be sent to you.

Please notify such requests to the Examinations Officer – Nick Worricker, via email info@duncanmurraywines.co.uk before the start of your course.

SECTION D COURSE MATERIAL DELIVERY CONDITIONS

On receipt of your booking confirmation and payment, relevant course materials can be dispatched to the student's address. It is the student's responsibility to ensure that they organise receipt of the materials or for alternative drop points. An alternative drop point could be to Duncan Murray Wines shop or to the course venue on the day of the course. Should the materials be returned to Duncan Murray Wines undelivered, then they can be picked up at Duncan Murray Wines shop or at the course venue at the beginning of the course.

If the student is in receipt of the course materials prior to the course it is the student's responsibility to bring those materials to the course sessions, as there will be no alternative materials available on the day of the course.

SECTION E STUDENTS DECLARATION

I have read and understood all the notes above, including the policy on cancellations and refunds. I understand that all courses are subject to minimum numbers and Duncan Murray Wines reserves the right to change educators, venues and/or cancel courses if necessary.

I understand that I am required to present authorised photographic identification at all examinations and may be refused entry to an examination if not produced.
