

Augmented Body, Altered Mind

Cavan Townhall 4 - 8 June, 2024

Accessibility Document

Table of Contents

Accessible Provisions	1
Know Before You Go	2
Audio descriptions	2
Exhibition Information in print	2
Exhibition Information in large font and screen reader friendly	2
Invigilators	2
Relaxed entry	2
Reflection/ Relaxation Area	3
Accessible Parking	3
Content Warning	3
Photography and Video	4
Contact	4

Accessible Provisions

Augmented Body, Altered Mind accessibility is informed by the Social Model of Disability. People with visual and hearing impairments are taken into consideration, as were those with anxiety, autism, and other mental-health conditions.

Know Before You Go

- Online Know Before You Go is available here

Audio descriptions

- Mp3 player available at the exhibition reception desk.
- Via QR code at the venue.

Exhibition Information

- In printed form at the venue.

Exhibition Information in large font and screen reader friendly

- Via QR code at the venue.

Script of the artwork

- Via QR code at the venue.

Invigilators

- There will be an invigilator at the exhibition ensuring the exhibition is presented in accessible ways.

Relaxed entry

- Visitors to the exhibition are able to enter, leave and roam as they wish to.

Reflection/ Relaxation Area

- There will be tea and coffee outside the exhibition space free of charge for private groups visiting on Feb 15th between 11am and 2pm. You can use this space to relax.

Accessible Parking

There are 16 parking spaces, and 2 accessible parking spaces, as well as a charging point.

Content Warning

Please note that the content of the artworks and talk will make references to:

Neurodiversity
Disability
Climate anxiety
Racism
Eco Ableism

Photography and Video

There may be photographs and video taken for archival purposes and for the artworks future development, including for documentation and promotional use for online and print formats.

Please inform the invigilator upon arrival if you would not like to be filmed.

Contact

If you have questions or need more information on accessibility chat to us on:

+35351 877 153
(ask for Visual Arts & Outreach)

or get in touch by email: visualarts@garterlane.ie