We're very lucky where we live because we've got  different shops nearby that sell great food. There are two butchers and they  sell very good meat, but unfortunately,  of them sells fish. We can buy fish from a fresh van, but that doesn't come  day. There are two delicatessens:  sells different things , and  sell every kind of cheese you can think of. We've got three very good greengrocers and there are two supermarkets nearby, but we don't go to  of them because we prefer the smaller shops. There's also a market  weekend. Apart from the food shops, there are very  other shops, though - hardly any , in fact. There  clothes shops - only a shoe shop and a small boutique. However, there are  Indian restaurants ! We've got three of them in High Street alone.
