~ LIST OF PROMPTS & RULES ~

Wow! It seems the group has already reached 600 members!

To celebrate this, we're hosting a special challenge, starting August 25th and ending September 26th.

This is the Book Bundle Readathon. Every participant, competing individually or in teams of 6, will read specially themed sets of prompts curated by the mods. For instance, a set of Summer-themed prompts. Or an LGBTQ+ set of prompts. Each "set" will have six prompts. There is no page minimum. This will create your challenge reading experience to be like a box set! Or, like our group- a wonderful set of truly special and beloved members.

In teams of 6, (maximum 6 teams: 36 total team participants - sign up quickly!), or working on your own, for the next month, you'll strive to read as many complete sets as possible. The team with the most points wins the Team Contest- the individual reader with the most points wins the Individual Contest. You can be both on a team and working alone. Your individual points count towards your team, but your team points won't count for your individual participation.
