

Gleamly Privacy Policy

Last updated: May 2026

Gleamly is designed to help users manage cleaning tasks, routines, recipes, and household organisation.

Information We Collect

Gleamly does not require users to create an account.

Most information entered into Gleamly, including tasks, routines, room data, and settings, is stored locally on the user's device.

Advertising

Gleamly may display advertisements using Google AdMob.

Google AdMob may collect certain device identifiers and usage information to provide and measure advertisements. Information collected by Google is governed by Google's own privacy policies.

Data Storage

User-created cleaning tasks, room information, settings, and preferences are stored locally on the user's device.

Data Sharing

Gleamly does not sell personal information.

Apart from advertising services provided by Google AdMob, Gleamly does not share user data with third parties.

Security

Data transmitted by advertising services is encrypted in transit.

Children's Privacy

Gleamly is intended for general audiences.

Changes to This Policy

This privacy policy may be updated from time to time. Updates will be posted on this page.
