Welcome letter:

Welcome to the Kindness Unfolded Family!

We're so excited you've decided to start a Kindness Unfolded Club! By starting a club, you're joining a nationwide network of young people who believe that kindness can change the world — one action, one word, one smile at a time.

Your club is now part of a movement that celebrates compassion, inclusion, and creativity. You have the power to inspire your school, your friends, and your community.

👛 What Your Club Will Do

Every Kindness Unfolded Club creates its own projects and spreads positivity in unique ways. You'll:

- Plan monthly acts of kindness or service projects
- Encourage others to get involved
- Support mental health and inclusion in your community
- Represent Kindness Unfolded with kindness and respect

▼ Sample Meeting Agenda:

If it's your first meeting, you can assign leadership roles and get to know each other. At your second meeting, you can follow this list. Here's a simple way to structure your meetings:

1. Welcome & Check-In (5 minutes)

Say hello, share something positive, or do a quick icebreaker.

2. Kindness Brainstorm (10 minutes)

Talk about upcoming projects or ways to spread kindness this week.

3. Planning Time (10 minutes)

Assign roles, gather materials, or set dates for your next kindness event.

4. Reflection (5 minutes)

Share one act of kindness someone noticed or experienced recently.

5. Wrap-Up (5 minutes)

Remind everyone of the next meeting and encourage daily kindness!

🐲 Ideas to Get Started

Here are a few easy ways to begin:

- Make handmade kindness cards for hospitals or seniors
- Create a "Kindness Wall" at school
- Host a positivity week with posters and quotes
- Do a community clean-up day
- Leave uplifting sticky notes around your campus
- Make friendship bracelets for classmates or teachers

Club Values

Our clubs are built on five guiding values:

1. Kindness: Always choose compassion first.

2. Respect: Treat everyone with understanding and care.

3. Inclusion: Every person belongs here.

4. Creativity: Let your ideas for kindness shine in your own way.

5. Community: We rise by lifting others.
