*Please note: If you have any login issues, please go to the Grade Level Tab on the Homeschool Hub for current login information.

GENERIC Benchmark Advance Student Text and Online Access*

Students receive consumable Texts for Close Reading and Student Practice pages packets, which they can read, annotate, and complete assignments in. They also have online access to an Interactive Student Edition, which allows them to read & access their student text from any device using a student login. They can also listen to all reading selections using this access. See below for instructions.

All students have access to this account so no assignments will appear here!

1. Go to: <https://hcs.benchmarkuniverse.com>
2. Log In:
 - Username: benchmarkstudent
 - Password for all students: student
 - Click *Sign In
3. Once logged in,
 - Click on My Library to access the following:
 - Whole Group Texts and Resources: online access to ebooks (identical to print consumable readers) that can be read to students with the click of a button. Reading can be adjusted to assist students.
 - ePocket Chart: online access to Elkonin Boxes and a pocket chart for phonics practice
 - Small Groups Texts and Resources: online access to leveled ebooks and Reader's Theater texts so students can read at their independent reading level to practice new skills (at least 6 titles available each unit)
 - Click on Help to learn how to use all components of the program.

*If you would like to personalize your student's access, you will need a teacher account to do so. Please ask your ST or complete the survey ON THE WELCOME PAGE OF THE HOMESCHOOL HUB.

Once a personal student account has been created then students will be able to use the following IF YOU AS THE TEACHER ASSIGN THEM!

- Click on Messages to read messages from your teacher.
- Click on Assignments to access assignments. Then click the Open icon to open up your assignment. Once you have completed the assignment, close the window and return to the assignment menu. Click Done if you completed the assignment. Select Review if you would like to review the item with stars and write a short review of the video or book. Once you have finished click submit and your review will be sent to your teacher. Assessments are auto-scored for multiple response portions.
- Click on My Reading Log to access etexts assigned by teacher and an online reading log.
