STUDENT RAIDER REPORT

Quote of the week: "Hold on to what is good, Even if it's a handful of earth. Hold on to what you believe, Even if it's a tree that stands by itself. Hold on to what you must do, Even if it's a long way from here. Hold on to your life, Even if it's easier to let go. Hold on to my hand, Even if someday I'll be gone away from you."

- Crowfoot, Blackfoot warrior and orator 1830 - 1890

Make sure you get outside and enjoy the last weeks of fall before the snow hits!

Taken from https://www.history.com/this-day-in-history/zebulon-pike-spots-an-imposing-mountain

This day in history, Lieutenant Zebulon Pike was on his second exploratory expedition where he saw a mountain peak, which to him, looked like a "small blue cloud." The mountain, located in Colorado in the Rocky Mountains, was later named Pike's Peak in his honor. Pike had never seen mountains the size of the Rockies, so he told his men they should be able to walk the peak, climb it, and be home for dinner. Obviously, that was not the case! The men hiked through snow and sub-zero temperatures and eventually had to take shelter in a nearby cave for the night. Because the men were not able to finish the expedition, they declared the mountain unable to climb (which we now know IS quite possible).

I enjoy watching true crime documentaries to unwind after a long day.

5. What is your favorite line from a movie or book?

Robbie: “No, Sir, I have no experience but I'm a big fan of money. I like it, I use it, I have a little. I keep it in a jar on top of my refrigerator. I'd like to put more in that jar. That's where you come in." -The Wedding Singer

Random fact:

I spend way too much money on pens, paper, and markers. (It's a bit of a problem)
