

Social Media.

Rhos-on-Sea LTC wants everyone to feel confident in sharing great news from within the tennis community. We monitor posts and review comments on the Rhos On Sea LTC social media channels, and will remove any that are inappropriate or offensive, including those which:

1. Are abusive, inciting violence or otherwise threatening or confrontational behaviour towards others, including swear words
2. Contain discriminatory, racist, indecent, sexually explicit, or offensive comments towards or about others
3. Contain promotional information, including any links to third party products or services (unless it has been approved by a committee member)
4. Infringe third party intellectual property, privacy, and/or publicity rights
5. Contain false, fraudulent, or misleading claims
6. Constitute spam messages which are corrupt or contain viruses

Rhos-on-Sea LTC reserves the right to block or ban users from all social media channels.

Please understand that comments posted to our social media pages do not necessarily represent the opinions or views of Rhos-on-Sea LTC.

Please note, these social media platforms were set up to promote and share club news and are not the platform for complaints from members. Any member who has a complaint or issue about the running of the club or the behaviour of any member, should follow our Complaint Policy.

Anyone who has agreed to be added to these groups has given consent that their mobile number is visible for all members of that group. We ask all members to respect people's privacy and access the number from the group to contact that member, after seeking permission from that person.

Members must not use others' personal emails, phone numbers or contact details without the explicit permission, avoid unsolicited or repetitive contact, refrain from marketing or promotional messaging, and not share anyone's contact information without consent.
