"Mom, check out the email I received from a young Lt .who was here with me. The Lord placed it on my heart to give him the prayer circle book. I thought I would share his words with you..."

"Troy,

Things are so wonderful these last few days. I made it home on Friday, and surprised Daniel after school. The circle maker book has been extremely wonderful and I've been covering my wife and our son in constant prayer. Honestly, these last few months have not been the best between my wife and I, and I truly believe that God intended me to receive that book I'm so thankful and grateful to you for being a friend, brother, and inspiration. I quietly observed you being the spiritual leader of your household from afar, and ALWAYS loving your wife as Christ loved the Church. I write these words with such an honor that God placed you in my life to show me what it really means to be a husband. I'm so happy that you and your brother have spoken and they have allowed Christ into their Obviously, I'm at home spending time with the family, so I'm not on FB as much these days, but know that you will always hold a special place in my heart, and I consider you a father figure in my life. Thank you for YOUR support, love, kindness, generosity, and prayers. We will DEFINITELY keep in touch."
