

Do you have a Best Friend?

-Nandini Chandra (Age 8)

“Good friends are like stars, you don’t always see them, but you know they are there”. My beloved best friend is a sweet girl called Aarna. She set foot in this world 8 years ago. She has been by my side ever since I started a new life in Hyderabad. Aarna is, and will always be my BFF. She has all the qualities a good person has, and many more! Aarna is trustworthy; you can trust her with your whole heart. She is hilarious as well. When I’m feeling down, she does all sorts of things to cheer me up. Aarna as a friend is all a person could ever ask for. Oh! I almost forgot to mention this! Her mind has the ability to brew up a wide variety of things that I would never dream of, that is, she is one of the most imaginative people I have ever met. She dances elegantly and her melodious voice takes me to a whole other world. Aarna is an extrovert, and by that, I mean she mingles with people and easily makes friends with others. She never hesitates to do anything. For example, back when gatherings were allowed, we attended a birthday party. The hosts switched on the speakers and started playing some songs. Everyone at the party danced to the beats and since Aarna loves to dance, she dived right in too! I am grateful to have a friend like Aarna. She is brainy, stands up for herself, and has high self-esteem. What else could I ask for?
