SHOES

Torcuato Zamora, 301.587.2266

826 Bonifant St
Silver Spring, MD

He is our guitarist who sells flamenco shoes (men and women), skirts, dresses, hats, and castanets direct from Spain. Most of my shoes come from him.

Guillermo Christi/Flamenco Connection, 703.352.5825

www.flamenco-connection.com

He's another one of our musicians but I don't believe he has male boots, but sells Flamenco and Brazilian shoes (for women), castanets, books, music, guitars, and other musical equipment out of Fairfax.

John Silva/Flamenco West, 310.305.7661

<https://www.flamencowest.com/m/>

He's located on the west coast and sells all things flamenco. They specialize in Senovilla boots. I just recently bought my first pair of Senovilla boots earlier this year. They are good shoes and John is great to work with.

Other websites for Flamenco shoes:

www.menkesflamenco.com

Menkes is also a reputable flamenco distributor with a store in New York. I have a couple of pairs, 1 is really good and my most comfortable pair of all my boots, the other, eh, but good shoes.

www.elcharro1.com

This is a company in El Paso, TX with Mexican Folklorico shoes at very affordable prices. These shoes for men and women are good beginner shoes for flamenco.

<http://zapacoco.com/shop-for-shoes>

Zapateria Coco sells Mexican Folklorico shoes. They can make wide and narrow shoes and can customize orders. Mexican shoes often work as a good alternative for flamenco shoes.

To customize your shoe, call 623.693.7141 or email zapacocoaz@gmail.com

www.gallardodance.com

This is predominately where Torcuato gets his shoes. I own many pairs of Gallardo shoes. They are really good shoes. If you are going to buy from the website, you may want to talk with Torcuato because he travels to Spain at least twice a year.

For those familiar with Etsy.com, you can also look for flamenco shoes and skirts there. These are some stores I have used: "Mela Flamenco", "Lo Mejor Shoes", "Porto Flamenco" and "Flamenco Casual"
