

0:00 THEME OF SLAYER; KOREAN

0:32 Welcome to the castle super beast cast~! On properly introducing yourself on a podcast

- 1:42 listening to podcasts as background noise so you dont do unsavory things because you play league

- 2:18 so how's your week, greg? On a person named greg who brought napalm to school. Pushing a teachers car in the snow

- - 4:00 a tweet about textbooks and the professor forcing you to buy them. A teacher printing outbooks for the students

WEEK OF THE BEAST LORDS

GREG

6:00 lockdown is back. Pat's been playing Monster hunter Rise on PC for 3 weeks. He can only talk about it today. There is nothing new added.

- 8:12 It runs nice, seems to have been designed to be ported to higher end systems in mind

- 9:27 running it at high framerates changes things due to lack of input latency

- 10:54 rise has all the event quests available

- 13:50 on the question of how it'll run online. And you can catch up before the next expansion

14:35 bloodstained. Its great.

15:41 omori. Its a good, interesting game with nice art. The fans of it gave pat the worst impression of the game, just like undertale.

- 17:22 on what the gameplay is like

- 18:38 on his first impression before he got to play the game, comparing it to how people pitched him undertale

- 20:45 1 minute before a major twist: Oh no dont tell him/better pay close attention/oh boy its that part

- - 24:00 woolie and the banana in deltarune, and the unavoidable nature of streaming

- 26:25 pat: omori good. Never playing it again

- 27:34 games with lots of text and no voice acting suck to play alone, on subbing or dubbing as a choice for streaming

29:39 dishonored 1's DLC. Blink's timestop upgrade

31:07 dark souls 3 mods. On daughters of ash and the progression of versions for cinders

- 33:47 ashfall and archthrones

- 34:29 convergence: reworking magic. New NPCs with voice acting.

- - 35:54 redone areas with new shortcuts, curserotted greatwood replaced with a new boss

- - 37:40 reworked weather and lighting, although the performance seems to take a hit with them

- - 38:30 DS3's engine and elden ring using that engine, and apparnetly someone is already working on parting all of the old games into elden ring

- - 40:23 pathfinder: kingmaker, but first more on putting every souls game into the same game through mods. What mods do you do from there?

- - - 42:10 the souls no hit challege run, and sekiro blindfolded

43:48 back to pathfinder kingmaker. Totally not DnD. saying no to 4th edition to make your own DnD

- 44:33 pathfinder as dnd with more options to minmax and bad choices for character creation.

- 46:23 why play this now? And on the encounter design and getting wiped by going off the critical path

- 50:22 does disco elysium count as a crpg? And the resurgence of the genre

- 51:52 the game is long, but the scale is based off time and handling the barony portion of the game

- - 54:27 the time constraints are generous, upgrading the barony to advance time

- - 56:42 exp and stats are different between character and managing, pat explaining the general gameplay loop

- 58:26 pat recommends putting kingdom management to easy difficulty and you can see dice rolls
 - 1:01:01 pre-fight buffing and using a macro to insta-cast all of them, and using another mod to lengthen the buff timers. Its fine because that's how it works in the sequel
 - - 1:05:22 how pillars fixed it: they are rare and only cast in combat, and in the sequel they are per encounter instead of per rest.
 - 1:06:29 resting for spells makes more sense in kingmaker
 - 1:08:30 pat: pathfinder's system encourages cheating because you can make a bad character
 - - 1:11:00 bad characters are interesting with other people and a real DM
 - 1:12:27 wanting to see the sequel, wrath of the righteous, due to lots of replayability
 - 1:13:37 how about baldur's gate III? And the first act is an entrie game by itself. And baldurs gate III being money.
 - 1:16:40 a sequel getting an improvement but its one you dislike. Being able to spin the camera
- 1:17:52 Pat will be playing demon souls over with paige at peachsativa, and there's always gregstairesat for his stuff. In french that's patstaresat
