

CPL Doris J Youngman (Clhowiak)

Location - West-A: R16, C17

In December, 1942, CPL Youngman joined the newly created Women's Army Auxiliary Corps (WAAC), which would later become the Women's Army Corps (WACS), to help in the war effort, and rose to the rank of Corporal. Her service in the WACS was evident throughout her life in the way that she always carried herself with dignity and grace. During her enlistment in the WACS, she worked primarily as a recruiter - spending most of her service in Pennsylvania.
