

Global Privacy Notice — Aurisé World

Our Commitment to Protecting Your Personal Information Worldwide

This Global Privacy Notice applies to individuals who reside outside the United States and Canada. It explains how we collect, use, disclose, transfer, and safeguard personal information from users around the world.

Aurisé World (“Aurisé,” “we,” “us,” or “our”) respects your privacy and adheres to applicable privacy laws where we operate.

1. What Personal Information We Collect

We may collect:

- Identity and contact data: name, email address, phone number, country of residence
- Usage information: IP address, browser and device details, pages visited, interaction data
- Communications data: messages you send us, preferences, and response history

Collection methods include direct input (e.g., forms you complete) and automatic tools (e.g., analytics).

2. How We Use Your Personal Information

We use personal information to:

- Provide and operate the Site
- Respond to your queries and fulfill requests
- Send relevant communications with your consent where required
- Personalize content and offerings
- Analyze Site activity and optimize performance
- Ensure security and compliance with legal obligations

3. Legal Bases for Processing (Where Applicable)

Where required under local law (e.g., GDPR), we will process personal information only when we have a valid legal basis, such as your consent, performance of a contract, compliance with a legal obligation, or protection of our legitimate interests.

4. Disclosure of Your Personal Information

We may disclose your information to:

- Service providers supporting our business functions
- Legal or regulatory authorities when required
- Professional advisors
- Other entities in situations such as corporate reorganizations or legal obligations

We require that all recipients protect personal information in line with applicable law.

5. International Transfers

Your personal information may be transferred to, stored, or processed in countries other than your own. Where required by law, we ensure appropriate safeguards are in place for such transfers.

6. Retention of Personal Information

We retain personal information only as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes for which it was collected, or to meet legal and regulatory requirements.

7. Your Rights (International)

Depending on local law, rights may include access, correction, deletion, restriction of processing, objection to processing, and data portability. To exercise your rights, contact us using the details below.

8. Security Measures

We apply reasonable technical and organizational measures designed to protect personal information. However, no system is entirely secure, and we cannot guarantee absolute protection.

9. Third-Party Links and Services

Our Site may contain links to external websites and services. We are not responsible for the privacy practices of those third parties.

10. Updates to This Notice

We may update this Privacy Notice from time to time. Changes will be reflected by an updated effective date.
