Central Bargaining Update: Initial Central Bargaining Table Meetings

Yesterday, OSSTF/FEESO participated in initial meetings at both the Education Worker and the Teacher/Occasional Teacher central tables with representatives from the Ontario government and the Council of Ontario Directors of Education (CODE).

The parties agreed on ground rules and began to determine the split between centrally negotiated terms and locally negotiated terms.

OSSTF/FEESO's bargaining team remains ready to negotiate throughout the summer to address the challenges in schools and fight for the supports that students and education workers need.

Here is a graphic that outlines the bargaining process to help members understand the various stages of negotiations.

What Can Members Do Right Now?

As bargaining has begun, member solidarity will continue to be a top priority.

Join our campaign at UNDERFUNDED.ca, and share it with your colleagues, family, friends, and neighbours.

Please ensure your contact information is up to date so we can keep you informed as bargaining progresses. And stay tuned for bargaining updates and information about member meetings that will be shared closer to September.

The Bargaining Bulletins are now available on the myOSSTF section of the OSSTF/FEESO website. Please check myOSSTF for updates.
