

Hello. This is Script Builder here. (and boyon, and others) Yesterday, on New Years, RomanianPilot retired from owning the wiki due to it's horrible mismanagement. Please don't harass anybody on this doc. Please don't harass me. Thank you and happy beesmas

"Don't trust script shit" yeah like I'm some evil mastermind (yes I AM thank you very much). Lets be honest i'm just some edgy teenager like everybody else here so let's get a start. All of this is real and proof will be added later on.

Troll's Mismanagement AND Admin Abuse.

That One Trolling Guy, also will just be referred to Troll in this doc, is a bureaucrat and former owner of the forsaken wiki. How he even got the ownership of the wiki, is by having a low count of 100 edits. He took advantage of the fact that the original owner of the wiki didn't know how to own a wiki.

https://forsaken2024.fandom.com/wiki/Message_Wall:ThatGoldfishYoutuber?threadId=4400000000000139606

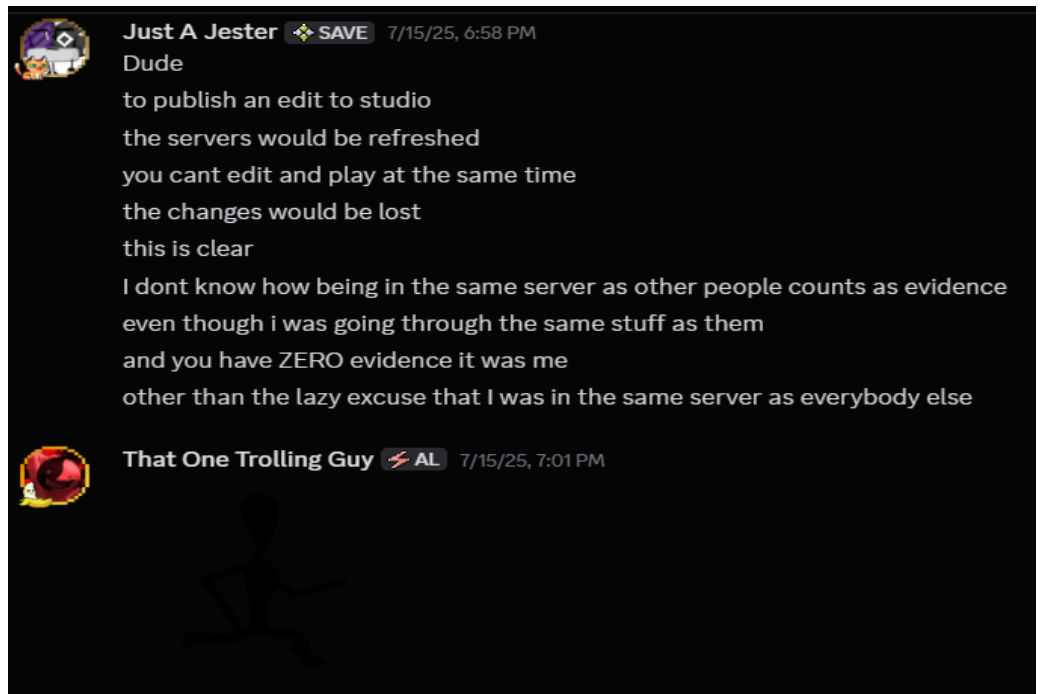

Trolling Guy also owns a multiple of wikis, including Let Him Go, (Only a month before he started editing the Forsaken Wiki, meaning that he DROPPED that wiki.)

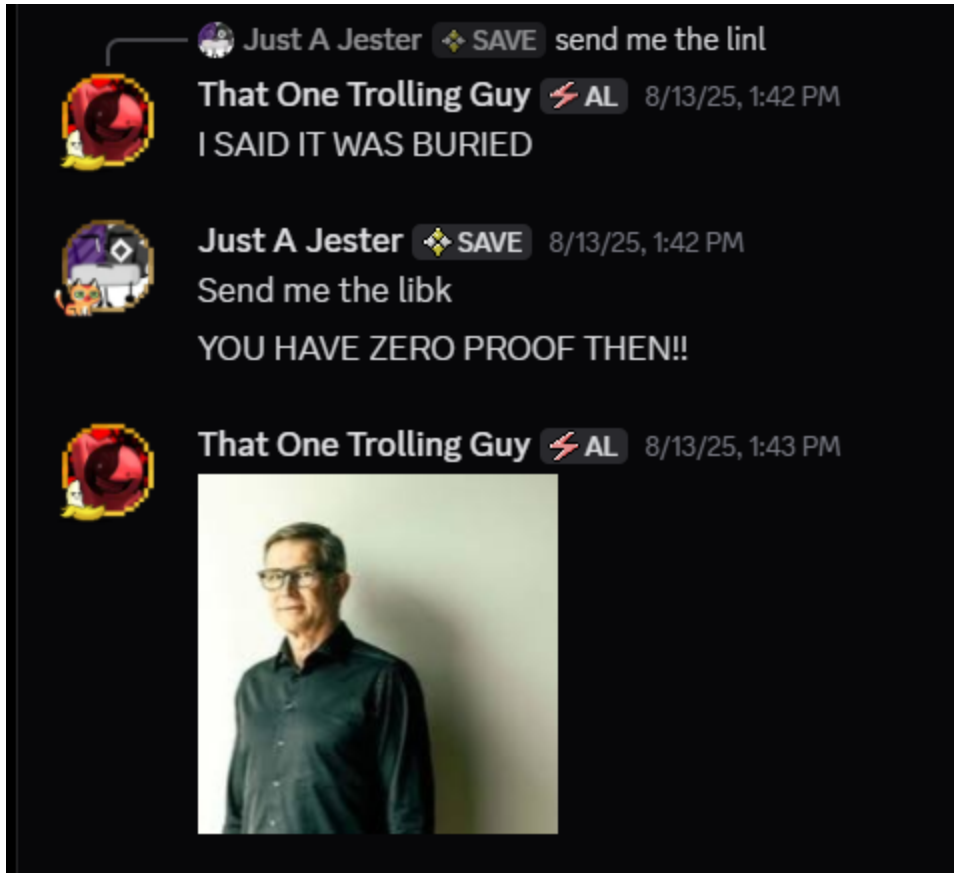

He ONLY came back to the wiki, AFTER he lost his admin in the Forsaken Wiki, then went right back to the Forsaken wiki once he regained his powers.

Idk what to include still for this part but he also called lime girl his wife

On Discord, he acts like a KID. Like actually a kid. He is BIASED to the max, posts memes on appeals, and is stubborn.

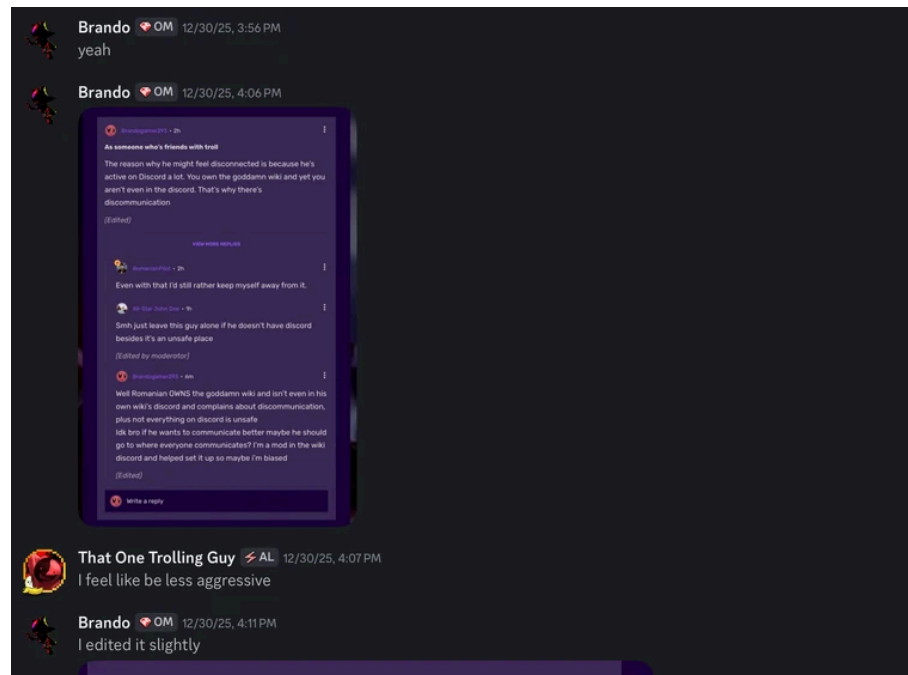

Also, he deflects his wrongs onto other people. For example, when asked about a situation, he says "Ohhh It wasn;t just me.... It was other staff members too!!!11"

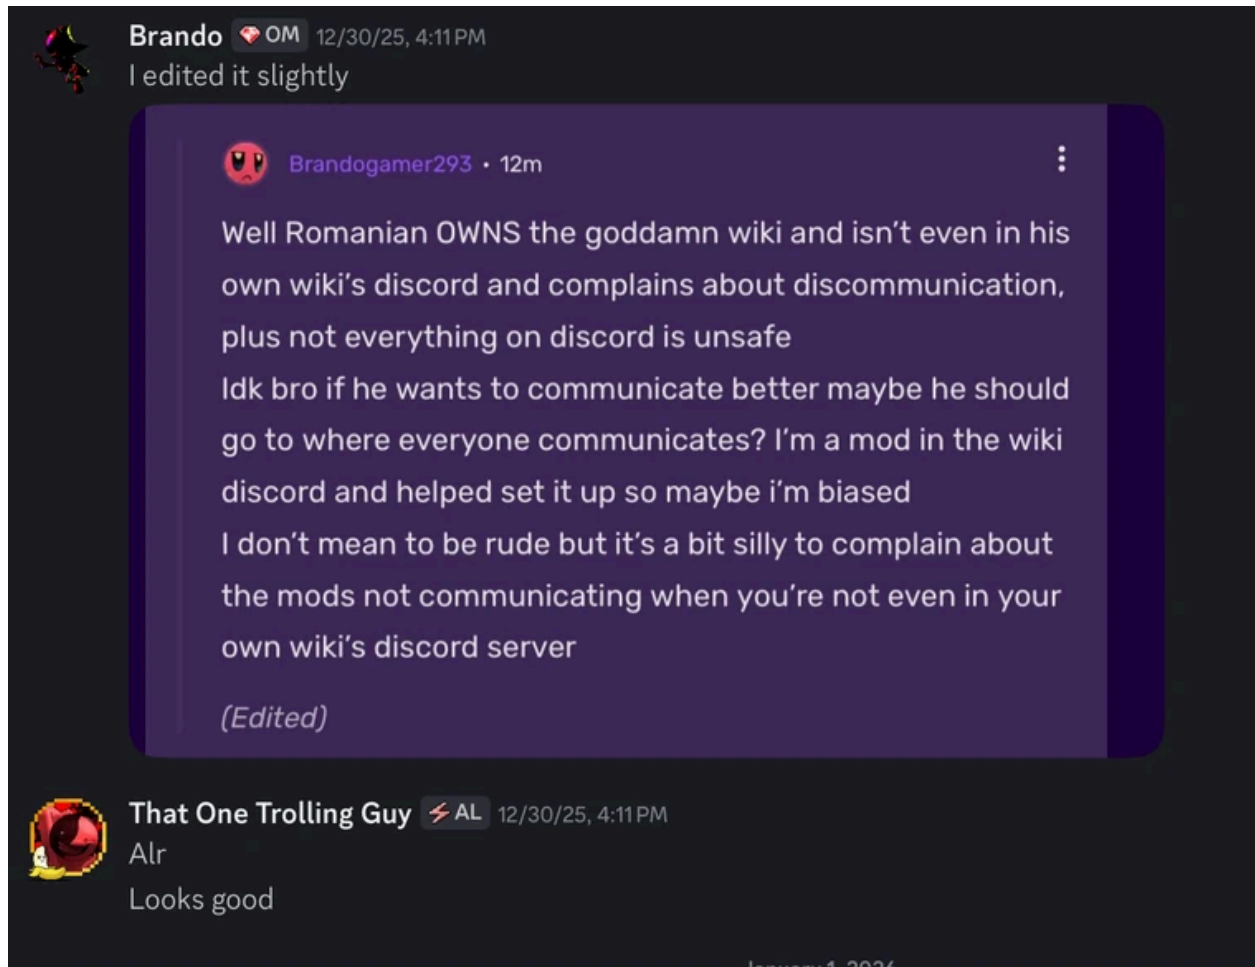

(Doesn't show me the link, and then BLOCKS me on discord after this. This just proves he is immature.)

Even though Troll didn't ASK for his friend to harass Rome, He still let it slide.

A mature wiki owner would have prevented harassment in the first place, not let it grow on.

https://evil.fandom.com/wiki/Message_Wall:That_One_Trolling_Guy?threadId=440000000000053853

This person also APPROVED the unblocking of FlxmingFlOwer (or whatever his user is), STILL after I said that HE HACKED into my account. I had to contact FANDOM SUPPORT to block Charlie, because his ego and other mods wouldn't.

I could drone on and on about all the times his been immature in the situations with me, but this doc would just be all about me.

Trolling also makes fun of blocked people, reflects HIS actions on other people, and more. It's also known that Troll abuses his power.https://fundamental-paper-education-fanon.fandom.com/wiki/Message_Wall:That_One_Trolling_Guy?threadId=4400000000000048723

But when somebody else does the same thing, thats when Troll gets made. Making polls to demote Rome, trying to demote other members, and more.

Troll is being a hypocrite and stating that others actions impact their role, but his actions are completely forgivable.

But they are not.

It is important to note that Troll also edits and helps out the wiki WAY less than others do, given the public log. He rarely edits posts, doesn't block as often as other staff, and is just over all not doing as much as the work.

https://forsaken2024.fandom.com/wiki/Special:Log/That_One_Trolling_Guy

The Forsaken Wiki (And TPC wiki) have a history of just giving popular people thread or content or even admin roles.

Yeah, you read the title. This is one of the main reasons why the drama in so many wikis happen. Upper mods choose their favorites, give them mod, and they barely do anything until drama happens.

It's known that some of these mods/former mods admin abuse.

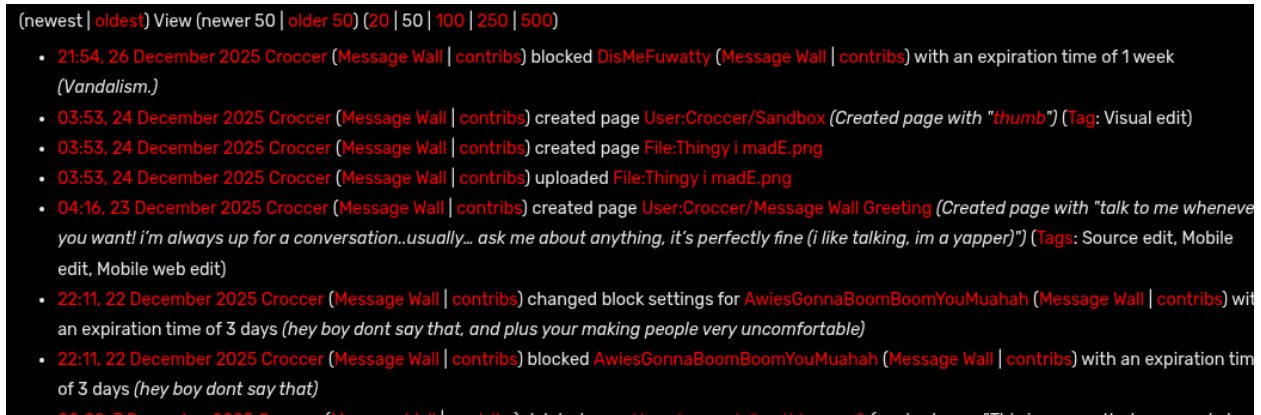

As in the 34 situation, he admin abusing for a long time got ignored because it was "funny" to other wikians. Only until another wikian, won't be specified, got an important post deleted for no reason, got their post deleted, that the situation was fully released.

They didn't have much experience, but they still got roles anyways, just because upper moderators liked them. I guess that's how starting your mod journey begins, but with such a big wiki like the Forsaken Wiki, it becomes an issue.

That's why most of wiki drama comes from people who aren't ready for their roles abusing their powers because they haven't experienced the consequences.

Croccer does NOTHING (bass BOOSTED.)

Small section but Croccer is one of the many, many mods that do jackshit.
Like NOTHING.

<https://forsaken2024.fandom.com/wiki/Special:Log/Croccer>

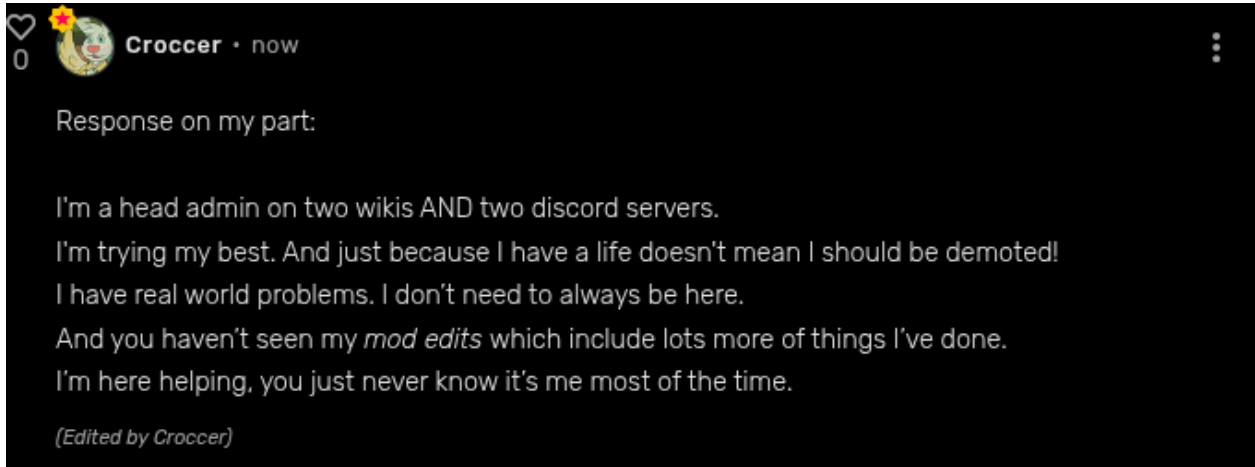

I guess I might be making this section cuz I'm EVIL and Croccerphobic, but they do NOTHING, and is still an admin.

It was EIGHT days since they did a public action, from the time of writing this section And with a measly 400 edits, they don't do much editing actions too. I'm pretty sure they got demoted/retired, but still managed to have their admin with them even know the amount of NOTHING the wiki admins do.

And being a Discord mod is not an excuse. That and being a wiki mod is a TOTALLY different role. Just because you have moderation on the Discord, doesn't mean you should have moderation powers on Fandom.

Croccer should be demoted, just saying.

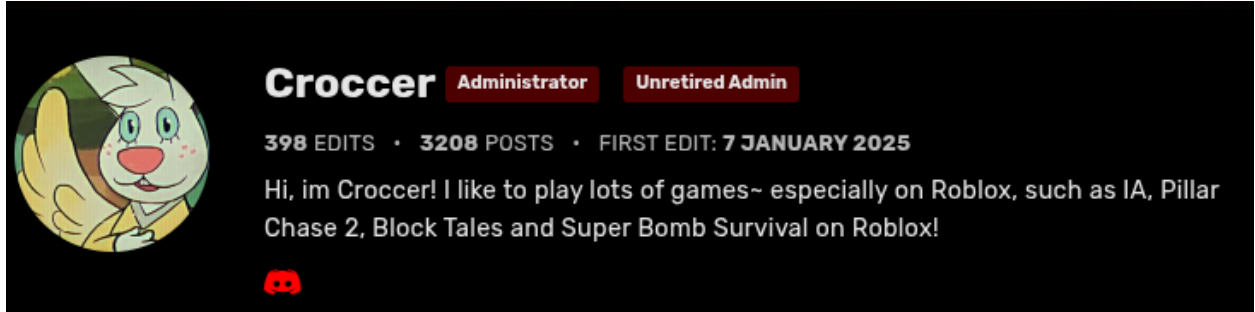

(oh hey croccer plays bss)

1: Yes, one of my points. Even though you're a mod on the Discord Server doesn't mean you have to be a mod on the Forsaken wiki. Your absence of work for such an enormous time being in the wiki proves something. You have been in the wiki for almost a full YEAR.

You don't even fit the requirements of Administrator, nor a Content Mod, NOT EVEN A THREAD MOD.

Content Moderators

Requirement: 500+ Edits + Well known/Trusted

Message wall No1.exe when applications are open

Content Moderators are the more powerful patrolling folk, having the ability to delete pages/files, change the protection of pages, edit said protected pages etc. They cannot block users.

Administrators

Requirement: Be a content mod + Have 1000 edits + be worthy enough for the role.

Administrators are trusted with managing the lower echelon of staff, being able to promote users to Discussion Moderator. They also have permission to edit pages within the MediaWiki namespace and block users for appropriate reasons.

Types of Admins

- Editor Admins: Users who mostly watch and moderate the editing side of the wiki like misinformation, vandalisms, and more stuff that shouldn't be there.
- Discussion Admins: Users who mostly moderate around discussions primarily then other things on the wiki.

https://forsaken2024.fandom.com/wiki/FORSAKEN_Wiki:Staff

The fact that you still have this role is baffling. We know you're trying your best, but everybody is here. You're just one of the several admins who are not fit for the role.

Yeah, and does that mean anything? Nouser has been blocked, does that make him bad in ANY way? No. Rei has been blocked. Does that make them bad? No.

Half of my blocks were misunderstandings, by the way.

I was asked by an admin, won't name, to give them a list of wikians that are dating, and I'll get unblocked. Troll BLOCKED me again after that, and they still got my list anyways.

Get better claims Croccer. All I've heard you say, to oppose my grand words of truth tuff, i know, is that I've been blocked.

That doesn't change anything about what I say. Take a Mill's Chill Pill.

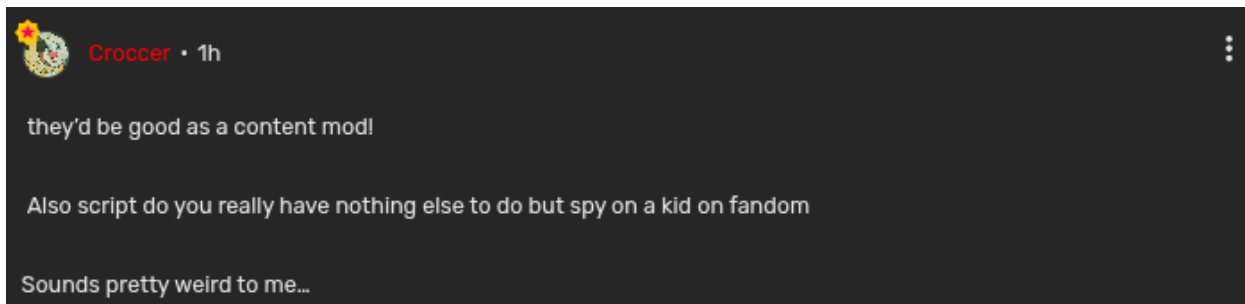

This is another key example of the mismanagement of the wiki. They don't enforce their rules enough, nor have stricter rules (Fandom-Dating), nor improve unfair rules.

Like I said, the fact that Croccher is a ADMIN, not to talk about the fact that they don't find ANY of the roles below an administrator, is baffling.

But YES, lets demote Shiky and Rome.

For MINOR mistakes. The mistakes that you other mods do all the time.

You moderators are hypocritical to the MAX.

Read the start of the doc my homo sapien

Troll MIGHT have, as an underage user, dated a wikian.

Before his block on the FPE wiki, he was interacting with a user alot called TheTiredCreature.

They used to interact ALOT.
He sent them Google Meeting codes, (meaning that he shared his face with them, I guess)

https://fundamental-paper-education-fanon.fandom.com/wiki/Message_Wall:Tha_t_One_Trolling_Guy?threadId=440000000000050204

This was in 2024, meaning that if Troll is 13-14 now, and he was 13 in 25, he was talking to TheTiredCreature as a TWELVE year old.

Yes, a twelve year old.

I bet that Troll allowed Fandom-Dating on this wiki (Which is a massive issue), because he also did the same thing on a different wiki. He exchanged Google Meet codes on the FPE wiki to with TheTiredCreature.

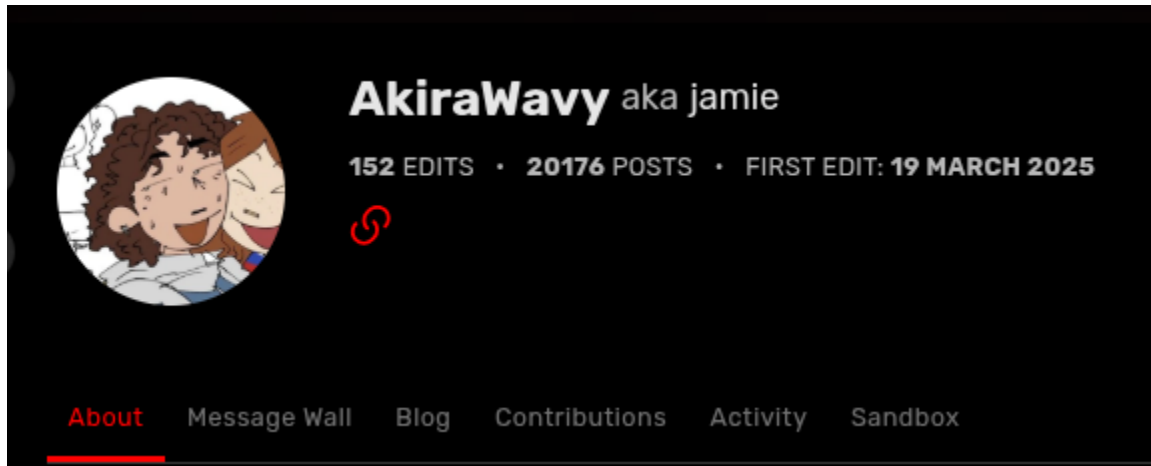

Troll hasn't responded to these claims yet, for some odd reason. Anyways, the reason this part is in the doc is because he also was an admin of the FPE wiki, and also deleted pages, and banned people when is emo/single/angel/demon girlfriend or other wikians asked them too.

And Troll would have be banned at the time he got bureaucrat

https://fundamental-paper-education-fanon.fandom.com/wiki/Message_Wall:Tha_t_One_Trolling_Guy?threadId=440000000000048108

So if Troll abused his power then, why couldn't he do it now?

Misc #1

YES we own the Forsaken Wiki
YES we don't give anybody who deserves a role a role.

Anyways, what I wanted to talk about is AkiraWavy NOT having some kind of thread moderation role, despite having more than 5x the amount of experience needed for the role, UNLIKE CROCCER. (admin btw)

It's really funny how if you're not popular and the most perfect wiki, you don't get a moderation role.

Yes, there are others.
But the fact that Akira, and the included others don't get the roles they're working for, despite meeting the requirements, is a bit off.

And there are now plenty of open slots, and I've seen a recent rejection.

Why do we change the rules around, Forsaken Wiki?

Because we're mismanaged.

My Response to Troll's Response

His doc is ALMOST as ASS as mine.

And I can admit another thing, sometimes I can deflect my things on to different people. Which I am in the fault for that too. And for the situation part, it was for you getting hacked. Which it was a staff decision has been made that is if we should unblock them or not. Which 3 active wiki mods in the gc agreed and we unblocked them. (Which their names will be censored) okay what the fuck can we just unblock flame i feel like she didn't even deserve the block after hearing about this (edited)

Yeah

Ye

This person also APPROVED the unblocking of FlixmingFlower (or whatever his user is), STILL after I said that HE HACKED into my account. I had to contact FANDOM SUPPORT to block Charlie, because his ego and other mods wouldn't.

Also in this part, you have stated that your Roblox account was hacked and not your fandom account. With you giving the password to the user that "hacked you" that gave them access. With what I heard it being proven several times that it isn't even hacking.

I asked CHATGPT if this was hacking, and yeah, it was:

"Short answer: yeah... that's basically hacking-adjacent behavior. 🍌"

Long answer, no legal-jargon snoozefest:

If you voluntarily gave someone your password only to work on a shared task, that permission is super specific. It's like saying:

"Here, use my car to grab pizza."

Not:

"You now own my car, repaint it, and lock me out."

So when they:

- change the password
- change account info
- lock you out

they've gone beyond what you allowed. That's called exceeding authorized access. In a lot of places, that legally counts as unauthorized access even though you originally shared the login.

Which is why this isn't just "rude coworker energy," it's:

- account takeover
- potential fraud
- potentially a crime depending on jurisdiction

Important nuance:

- If you clearly said or implied they could fully take over the account, then it's messy.
- But if it was for collaboration and they yanked control? That's not a gray area — that's grimy.

What you should do, fast:

1. Try account recovery immediately (email reset, security questions, support ticket).
2. Screenshot everything.
3. If money, business, or identity is tied to it — don't play nice. That's report-worthy.

That move isn't teamwork — it's digital backstabbing with extra steps. 🦴”

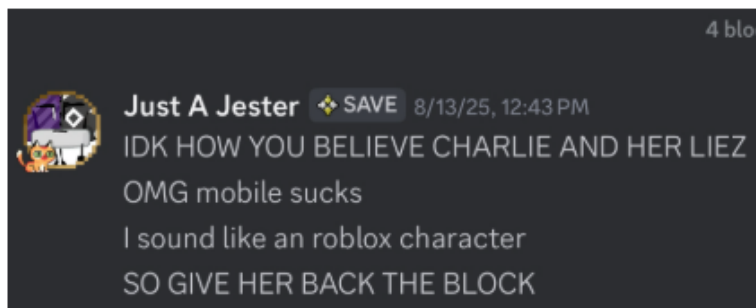

The main part of why this even matters is because it's just plain mod bias. No matter the side, a punishment still is required. Just because we love Charlie and her fucking lies doesn't mean that we can let it slide.

Did you even research what hacking meant?

But that part doesn't even matter, because Fandom Support did the work you mods were scared to do.

(Doesn't show me the link, and then BLOCKS me on discord after this. This just proves he is immature.)

This part is heavily false except for the link. Which I couldn't get because I couldn't find it (Which it was ozyull being uncomfortable). But blocking Script after because of the link is wrong. Which this screenshot was the last dm before I decided to block him.

So why did I get blocked?

Cause I was using caps?

Professional indeed.

His other point he admitted his mistake, I'll let that slide, but for the other opinion
