

Sample Academic Integrity Pledge from Nicole Simpson

This is not an open book exam. This exam is self-administered and you are expected to maintain academic integrity during this exam.

You are not permitted to use any additional resources or aids during this exam including:

- Collaborating/communicating with other students during the exam
- The use of books (this is not an open book exam)
- The use of additional resources paper based or electronic such as notes, mathematical tables, dictionaries or other study aid unless an explicit written note to the contrary
- The possession or use of cameras, radios (radios with headsets), tape recorders, pagers, cell phones, or any other communication device which has not been previously authorized in writing.
- The sharing or recording of the examination in part or in whole.

As per the MacEwan University Student Academic Integrity Policy:

5.1.2 Students shall not engage in Academic Misconduct, whether intentional or unintentional. Macewan University. (2019). Student academic integrity policy. MacEwan University retrieved from 20<https://www.macewan.ca/wcm/StudentAffairs/AcademicIntegrity/index.htm#>

I understand to use any additional resources or aids as identified above will be considered academic misconduct and will result in an academic penalty. I agree to maintain academic integrity during this exam.