Night 1

I said it before, but I'll say it again. So. Many. PMs. Sorry you died so early again Dannex. And Volatile Vote Swings. That completely changed in the last hour.

Ah, the chaos of D1.

There's a reason why I put the classic counter-lynch in the tags

Also, Alv's action request (and your response) has me cracking up.

For non-GM people, Alv said he wanted to take some acid. I said that he was going on a different kind of trip than expected.

I'm surprised he's not using the Map, but that's his choice. There was no need to use it at that stage.

Oh crud. I never decided if attacked and survived showed up in the writeup.

I'm going to say it doesn't.

Day 2:

Well, that sucks for the Forgotten. The kill gets blocked, and the Specialization they learn is for Warding. Tough luck.

You know, I may have made Lanterns too strong. In the original game, they let Day actions be taken at Night, which while flavorful wasn't all that useful. However, now they make action deducing a lot easier. I perhaps should have made them a one-use item.

I almost started responding to PMs before I saw my GM PM saying I had died. =P

This is what you get for not logging on over the weekend I guess. I don't think I posted in the thread like, at all. Maybe once. (I have since checked, and no, not at all.) Guess I should go read and see why I died.

Sart, Elandera, Dannex, Mat, Quinn, Connie, Illwei, Alvron, Order, TJ, Striker, Experience, Ashbringer, Lotus, Kas, Books

Oh gosh, that was a fast swing on me. I suppose I have no one to blame but myself, I should have said in the thread that I wasn't going to be on for the weekend.

Wait no, I can blame the Elims. Unless somehow they had nothing to do with my exe at all. But I doubt that.

Illwei: "Your argument revolves around me basically intentionally outing myself as an Elim and I know like, I've only had one Elim game but like you really think? that I'd? do that?" It's been done

Night 2:

I need a drink. Should not have started reading a new Fantasy book. I had already posted the writeup, and realized Illwei had posted an action that was on the borderline of time. That could have killed him, ironically, since he silenced Archer's bribed vote. I rolled the dice, and Matrim still died. It would have been a problem if he hadn't. So, as punishment, I still said Illwei's Chalk got used up because of him doing it. Oh gosh don't tell me Illwei is evil _.

[REDACTED]

Spoilers, obviously. [REDACTED]

Can I get the team :ph34r:

If the kill was blocked, Gears could be evil. Though I wonder why nothing was said about it

Spoilers for the whole game obviously:

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Is Stink really the thief though hmmm

"Okay, so, sorry @Matrim's Dice. I tunneled on you so hard. " -Striker

I'll say :P But you're good. We've all done it. :)

I bet the person Striker is saying will draw a LoW is himself...

I finished Rithmatist yesterday on my reread. I forgot that [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Hmm Nazilar or Nalizar? I read the book just now and I can't remember xD

"Mat left the game, poof. info." -Illwei

Sart, Elandera, Dannex, Mat, Quinn, Connie, Illwei, Alvron, Order, TJ, Striker, Experience, Ashbringer, Lotus, Kas, Books

No. I didn't leave, I was brutally slaughtered. But phrase it how you want :P

I hope the kill is successful tonight. I need company.

Yeah. I unfortunately haven't been able to follow as closely as I had hoped. Part is work. Part is writing. And then there's always a little laziness, because, well, I'm a terrible person. XD Oh, and there's the bajillion and a half PMs that also make it difficult to follow. Yeah that's fine. The PMs... would make that difficult, yes. Yikes. To give you an idea, I created a folder already for LG73. There are 146 items in it. Man that makes my 90+ MR look tame. Nice. Almost beat my record of just over 150 PMs in the first 24 hours of MR5

Day 3

Hey Quinn. Looks like your paranoia was justified. Yeah I was expecting that. They had every reason to kill me and no reason not to. I couldn't defend myself but I have a powerful Specialization and a Lantern and I was read vil by basically everyone. I'm just annoyed everyone brushed it off :P

Did I block the N1 kill? Who did you target? The team is spoiled up there. I targeted myself with Forbiddance. Sorry, I keep forgetting that xD I'm just wondering if the elims tried to kill me N1 as well.

How the heck did we end up with 6 Defense this Night??? (according to my Lantern). Oops. Yeah pretty much. 2 from Buckets of Acid (Araris and Alvron) and 2 from LoWs (Araris and Kas) but idk who drew the other two... TUO? :P Possibly. I did read the spoilers btw so ik who the elims are. Annoyed that I didn't realize [REDACTED] was one... I'm annoyed no one listened to me :P I totally should have. They were acting so weird XD

Also apologies for tunneling on you. Like twice. :P Apparently that's not just a thing that elim!me fakes, it's also a thing that vil!me actually does. Same with tinfoil and wall-posts. So this is fun. Consider it even for killing you in the QF >:) well but I was elim then and totally deserved it. I didn't even really try to fight it tbh. I just hope I can like, actually read you and it wasn't a one time thing. I think my read in this game makes that promising. I think I'm just easy to read for anyone who's paying attention long-term. Like, C1 of the QF everyone thought I was vil and then I guess I slipped up somehow and then they didn't. I don't really know where my read came from tbh. But that's normally how I play :P If I'm being honest I partially fabricated my read on you at first (and then you said the stuff about "in a village way" it was tho and such and I was like Oh no that's actually sus) because I felt like... idk I just wasn't used to not being able to produce reads? I may be vil this game but I don't think I totally shook off the habits I developed as elim :P so even as I was putting together my argument for like... why the Defenders should claim to Archer and not random people I found myself running into holes in my argument and then automatically ignoring them because that's what I'd do as elim. And then I'd be like "wait I'm vil why am I doing this"

Sart, Elandera, Dannex, Mat, Quinn, Connie, Illwei, Alvron, Order, TJ, Striker, Experience, Ashbringer, Lotus, Kas, Books

Ooooo Nice Illwei I like that vote. Keep that vote where it is. Pretty please. Though why she didn't go the direction I would have gone I don't know. Huh?

Why is that spoiled. Also yes. I had a brain freeze :P because I was responding to your spoiled thing lol idk.

Sart, if you would, could I have the thief's identity? My notes spreadsheet wants a complete player list and then to be closed.

Oooo yeah I'm curious too. My guess is... I guess Ash but I actually have no idea XD I think it is Stink (ooh rhyme) cause Illwei said something about that and Stink sort of implied it? But it's also Stink so idk how credible that is.

Spoilers (obviously):

Ohhhhh okay that makes sense too lol I wasn't sure before because I didn't know if they were vil or not, but it was between the two of us as my guess for the N1 NK. (also [REDACTED])

"I'm glad we didn't exe llwei, the thread would've died." -Connie

I am offend! I talk a lot too! (And on Quinn's behalf as well, heh) lol Connie was saying that the thread would have died if both me and Illwei had been killed. Her point is that I talk a lot. Heh, it does seem like a lot of the most active people are dying. We three are usually fairly active. My being inactive was literally the reason I died because it was apparently so out of character for me =P. I wonder if that's the Elims strat, killing the talkative ones. Can confirm, it 100% is. The village doesn't get anywhere if none of them say anything XD especially if one of the elims happens to be talkative, as is the case when I'm on the team.

But like-

So I'm bored and looking for my SE fix, and the next game doesn't start til tomorrow, so I had an idea. Ya know how people like to play games in dead docs? 🙄

Anyone wanna start the most meta SE game yet? Hmmmm what did you have in mind?

Sart, Elandera, Dannex, Mat, Quinn, Connie, Illwei, Alvron, Order, TJ, Striker, Experience, Ashbringer, Lotus, Kas, Books

Would waiting for more people be better? Also, good luck beating that one spambot game as far as meta games go... Spambot game? I forget when it was run. Lemme check. LG53. OMG that's hilarious I love it. lol

Quintessential? ~~Now I'm gonna need to figure out how to spell that without checking every time~~
Or you could just call me Quinn lol

Why does Araris suspect Lotus the least ._.

~~"Just because last time devo said this they were an Elim, doesn't mean that they're an Elim now, Illwei."~~ - Illwei

I like how, basically, the entirety of the doc at this point is in spoilers.

Archer's vote xD

Wow the village might... actually win. Good job guys.
I'm being too hasty though :P It's D3 and there's still 5 to go. But it's looking possible as opposed to some games where the dead know they're doomed and watch their teammates doom themselves.

Where is everyone :(Doing homework :P This is important. Good. See, for me, my school is so easy that I do my homework during class when I have free time during class because I finish the classwork. So yeah. I wish I could do that... but a) I don't actually have class time because all of my classes are asynchronous and b) my entire courseload is hard. I wish I had hard classwork :P I mean, I learn new stuff but the way the school runs is just a whole bunch of practicing the same thing over and over that I got the first time.

Random new player on the game thread? Why not :)
Connie said she'll PM them but I think I will too... maybe not. We'll see I guess.

Of all the exes, one is not as good. That's the one that will happen, isn't it... I mean. Every other time someone's suggested three people to exe and two of them were elim, the villager always ends up being the one to die. So yeah, I'm not getting my hopes up too much XD

Sart, Elandera, Dannex, Mat, Quinn, Connie, Illwei, Alvron, Order, TJ, Striker, Experience, Ashbringer, Lotus, Kas, Books

Points to Archer! "So I feel okay using that meta to speculate that when they said "I'm definitely evil" they were telling the truth, full stop. Come, join me Striker! Take the low hanging fruit!" - Archer

Also thanks Archer :) I've been thinking about changing my username for a while--was getting kinda tired of the numbers lol I was wondering what they were, actually. My guess is birthday, September 28, but idk. They could just be random :P ~~oh no they're totally not my birthday. Definitely not. What gave you that idea???~~ XD

Yes, Striker! Vote for Connie! :)))

Yay!

Well, Illwei, idk if there will be a last minute switch but I sure hope there's not! Unless it's onto

Night 3

Hello, Connie! You tried to pocket me, didn't you... Hi Connie! Welcome to the dead doc! Please sign up for a spot in SG1 on the next page :) Haha definitely Striker, why are you hoarding items? He has five already, and he's going for a sixth. He thinks he's the thief. Meanwhile, Stink takes a bribe, which I don't think is a valuable one... Actually it is lol Hoarding items is a good strategy for later in the game as it makes it less likely that they can force you to drop the important items you have.

Idk why Striker openly said he was going for the clock :P
And there... sort of was a bus? I guess?

Oh yeah, Alv's analysis. I'm looking forward to seeing what he comes up with. Hopefully the connection with [REDACTED] which I found starkly obvious but I also had TMI so idk.

As for the kill... I'm thinking it's Striker. That seems likely.

Hi! First of all... I'm really sorry, Quinn. The kill fell to me and I was given the choice between TJ and you. I picked you. :(I wasn't really trying to pocket anyone, I was honestly just trying to seem like I had been pocketed and really really trusted you. What's SG1? Scroll down hehe And I probably won't be on here much, it's hard for my Pi. And I did it! I never actually lied. On my first time as an elim. Which is unfortunately why you were caught :P Oh, no, Connie it's fine lol I more or less knew the elims were gonna kill me--so like, it made sense. I generally don't hold hard feelings over being NKd, I think. Exes are... sometimes a different story :P

Hey, TJ. I see that PM. I exist, too ya know. :P

Oof. Archer is definitely on to the Elims. Good on him, let's hope he isn't converted :P
...He is the Non-Rithmatist, right? Like, that's all good that he claimed but he totally could just be acting under someone else.

Another question: Is the Shadowblaze in play?

Sart, Elandera, Dannex, Mat, Quinn, Connie, Illwei, Alvron, Order, TJ, Striker, Experience, Ashbringer, Lotus, Kas, Books

Ooh go Gears making the Devo connection. Yesss I noticed that. This is going better than I thought it would XD ~~now all we need is for Ash to do an analysis on tonight's kill that pegs 3 of the 4 remaining elims-~~

Day 4:

It happens every game. The Forgotten save the Camp. Wait did they really??? I mean I guess the vil cred is nice lol Hey if I had been evil I wouldn't have :P

XD when Illwei gets here she's gonna be so disappointed by how short the doc is... The three of us will fix that, I suppose. And we'll have another player for SG1. I'm sad Connie hasn't signed up yet ;-;

Alv xD ikr...

Okay thoughts before I go look at the spoilers and hopefully find the Elim team

- I have no clue rn why they would kill me? I was thinking I was a viable enough ML for them to keep alive- I- I worked so hard for that ;-; (it backfired) and all that SHUSH DO NOT INTERRUPT ME WHILE IM MONOLOGUING NO >:(:P. (sorry)

- So I guess I have to figure out the reason. It slightly implicates striker? Striker was the only person paranoid about that though, and that reasoning- idk that's not enough. Easier solution there would be to kill off striker

- Er...reads? My reads were trash though, and I haven't said a lot in-thread. Perhaps it was someone in QF50 on the team, worried that I would find the connections like I did then? I mean, I went through connie but DANG that archer/connie thing- and the people trying...who was that? I guess that means that they're most likely not Elims- the people poshing connie/me connections? So.....semi-clears Venty! He NEVER gave his reasoning so I'm sad about that. Maybe he didn't want to have to ever give his reasoning, because it didn't exist? Hm. idk.

Elims??

I don't think TJ would have killed me if he was an Elim. We were like, like, I was making jokes about being pocketed but they were complete jokes and I see no reason for him to kill me there. I mean, I'm not gonna sheep his reads but I wouldn't have killed him at all.

Who else do I think isn't an Elim...er...I think that Devo/Archer have had some weird interactions. I made a group PM with them and Devo said something that made archer go "so you didn't start with chalk?" or something like that, and then I think he asked her to PM him or something idk.

Er....Gears threw slight shade on me this night it seems, so I don't think it's him. I wouldn't have been surprised if he joined Venty! on me the next day (if ventyl decided to stay on me). It wouldn't have made sense to try and set me up for a ML and then kill me.

I don't remember much of my other thoughts. I think one of [Random Bystander, TUO] is an ELim, I'm only leaning towards TUO because that's what TJ was thinking? But TJ's reasoning was so strange on that, because he completely ignored RBy there. So possible connection there for some reason. It could really be e/e or e/v because I have no clue how TJ would play Elim :P.

The lack of a CW on connie was strange, but tbh that feels like...like Lotus is also an Elim. not sure what kind of team that makes. I think I thought there was a Striker/Lotus connection somewhere in the early days, but I don't...remember what made me think that? I think it was someone (I swear if it was TJ-) saying something about it, but idk.

I don't think it's Burnt or Books. This doesn't feel like E!Books at all to me.

Honestly I still feel like it's Alv. I know that a lot of what I'm feeling could be assigned to things going on for him irl or just playstyle things, but idk. He doesn't feel right at all.

Wow you wrote stuff lol shhhh don't interrupt!!! XD

WHAT DID I SAY ABOUT INTERRUPTING MEEEEEEEEEE :P.

Er, Hm, so yeah. Alv doesn't feel right at all. idk. I thought alv was fine in QF48 (alv wasn't in QF48? ??yes he was? It was my first game, pretty sure I'd remember :P He was in that game... go look it up then :P. Mat led the vote on him :P. Pretty sure we killed him though Oh huh guess I didn't pay as much attention to that game as I thought then XD but I thought my first game with him was LG72... Oh, nope, was wrong. Just checked :P whatever) but I feel that had way more to do with the people pushing him and not the fact that I thought he was village. I think I did, but still idk. One point does not a pattern make or something like that and so ya know who knows. But yeah.

Alv, Reading, Connie, Lotus

Alv, Reading, Connie, TUO

Neither of these sound like...were we guessing a 5 person Elim team? Wait. how many people are in this game?23? Yeah yeah 5 person lmaooo 23 at the start yeah. We were guessing 5 in-thread anyway.

Okay so 5 person elim team so who would be the fifth here....

[Alv, Araris],

Taking a moment here to comment on how Striker doesn't bring up my flip. Reading Striker as Elim now, because he's been solidly SRding me and pushing me. Okay. hm, Would a Alv, Striker team make sense? I guess, yeah? Because there's Kas and Araris, Devo on the village side then? I know I'm putting too much thought and maybe putting people in the wrong categories here but anyways

Alv, [Reading, Lotus] Striker, [TUO, Bystander], Connie

I guess that's my guess rn for the Elim team. Sigh. oh well.

I think that Archer/Devo could be a team. That would be a seriously weird gambit to try and pull off, but I'm into it :P. This starts reading too much into conspiracy theories because occams razor or whatnot yadda yadda who cares about Occam's Razor XD Kwin get this tinfoil away from me smh. :P This is not a tinfoil theory that I would support or promote without expanding it a little. Devo's not the only one to have advocated for Archer being NR, after all. Yeah but see my theory would be that Archer is an Elim, and Devo is actually the NR, and- well, it doesn't matter, because I'm not going there. It would be some ballsy move for Araris, Devo, and Archer to all be Elims (now see, that's a theory that I might come up with XD) so if that's the case then I give up rn :P.

Sart, Elandera, Dannex, Mat, Quinn, Connie, Illwei, Alvron, Order, TJ, Striker, Experience, Ashbringer, Lotus, Kas, Books

MIST i forgot about Mist. not getting good vibes from mist. She's going about with like, like, she was like, like in the signups and whatnot? You know? But she's been complete RNG, nothing else. And that's not really playing the game if you're village. Smh. okay so maybe [[Reading, Lotus], Mist] ? Because I think that Reading/Lotus are like, hm. Like I don't think- If I could replace a spot I guessssss I'd replaaace.....Tuo/Bystander? I think replacing striker or Alv potentially makes the team to weak for the village? I'm not sure. I guess I'm sticking with my guess up there, but also just like, also mist :P. SSomewhere. Mist is there somewhere :P. Can I ask something, out of curiosity? What is the link between Archer and Devotary? You mentioned it a couple of times in-thread too and either I forgot what it was or I forgot to ask what it was... idk.

What? It's the fact that Devo was the first person Archer claimed to. I mean. But Araris was also claimed to, right? So unless they're all three of them lying, that's not... a link?

Right, which- Quinn, I gave up on that path, but Archer-Devo could be E/NR instead of NR/E theoretically because Archer claimed to Devo before he claimed in-thread. So you're saying, NR!Devo gave elim!Archer an ability, and then claimed?

I'm not saying that, I'm saying that It theoretically could be possible. I don't believe that.

(Archer hinted at having no Chalk D1 :P I seem to have been the only one to notice that, but I was just rereading that post when Archer claimed so I remember it XD)

This- this isn't an argument I want to have, as I have no strong feelings about it :P. I'm going to go read the doc now. :P. Lol okay (imagine if Archer was actually elim and I was arguing about it to be counterintuitive... I mean that's not the case but I could totally see myself doing that)

Smh I'm- I'm wanting to change my reads because sigh

It really doesn't matter now :P. God tier reads in one game is enough for me :P. I think I know why you were killed, though--at some point last cycle, you started throwing shade on

Which you now don't even seem to remember but they definitely noticed it and so did I.

Huh. I mean, I'll spoiler later but

Illwei join the SG

Nope :P. I'm in a game on MU starting in...two days. So I guess it's good I died anyways :P. Pfft like it actually will require... effort :P

Okay, having caught up, I want to kick myself >>. I was right about, so that means other people will notice it too hopefully :P. Though I'm actually doubtful because it appears I'm more observant than I thought I am, having been apparently the only one to pick up STINK softing thief >>. Sigh. er, what else., and I...should have listened to myself more :P. I just have a really hard time telling the difference between my paranoia, and my...not. Paranoia. Don't think I would have gotten, because even though they were being kinda standard elimmy, I... ... Meta. I wanna play another anon game so I can just

Sart, Elandera, Dannex, Mat, Quinn, Connie, Illwei, Alvron, Order, TJ, Striker, Experience, Ashbringer, Lotus, Kas, Books

Ignore

Meta

Like I can tell myself to right now, but that doesn't mean much :P. Because it's still there :P.

Also @Sart "punishment" ???? WHAT??/ ;-; I sent in the action at 5:59 ;-;.

Yesss Kas keep voting there. Don't be swayed :P.

I like that plan, Stink.

Go team! xD

"Pfft like it actually will require... effort :P" - Mat

Whoa whoa you talking about the Spectator game or the MU game xD. The SG :P

Okay wait wait I'll play this spec game if I can convince Danex to let me be the GM :P.

"Ventyl, did you say to Striker that Connie was a thief or the Thief? An Elim would be happy to let their teammate appear to be the neutral. " -Archer

Actually, an elim teammate wouldn't mess that up :P

Yes alv lets go let's kill TUO hehehhe

And Ash

Kas said in the group I made "Illwei don't you dare Elantrian this" and I don't know what he's referencingggg? I feel like- I mean it's probably something I said that he's hoping I didn't misread or something, but I don't understaaaaaand.

I find Lotus' vote absolutely hilarious xD

That is- That's legitimately so suspicious. Lmao. I would vote Lotus right then. I mean, I was already sus of her because of how little the vote picked up on Connie. Kinda interested in why the Elims didn't split over that vote, because if they did it would clear the other one better, imo? I mean, no one has pointed it out thus far, so- eh? reeeee Yeah obvious distancing is obvious. Very obvious :P

Sart, Elandera, Dannex, Mat, Quinn, Connie, Illwei, Alvron, Order, TJ, Striker, Experience, Ashbringer, Lotus, Kas, Books

Books' vote, on the other hand...

Night 4

Welcome, Order!

Alvron lost RNG??? WHAT???? It happens. Not often but it does.

Out of curiosity, who got the gun?

No one gets it. IIRC it gets used up in the struggle.

Probably a good thing I died as both [REDACTED] were high on my kill list if I had gotten the gun.

I don't see that as a good thing? xD I think having another of them killed the following day would suck for them so yes, it's a good thing I died. also I thought everyone but one person gets the death and the one gets the gun, no? But..it gets used up? "If the number of players grabbing Guns is higher than the number of Guns in the supply, no one gets any Guns, and all but one of the players who attempted to grab the Guns will die." The Gun is used up and removed going by the rules.

Oh huh TUO went to grab the gun so that Alv would die huh?

Indeed. Didn't need TUO passing the Map so it worked out well.

Sorry for taking purple I guess :P. I so rarely take purple :P

Dannex stole my color, so this is what you get to deal with. Sart, did you remove my white text or did I not save? Also, Devo, I took the gun so I could have a however small chance of taking a village down with me. Which you did, and you took a villager down who would have killed one of your teammates. So well done.

Also, put your name at the top.

Very well done. I talked to Archer about Striker doing that if he was being lynched but didn't think you would see it as a good move. I'm impressed you saw it and [REDACTED] didn't.

Lmao who signed up for Danex's spec game as Sart :P ~~I thought Sart did~~ edit history shows an anon acct did

What is even going on rn smh.

Day 5

Well how Exciting.

I haven't been talking a lot in here. I suppose the people reading this after the game is over will be more happy about that. Only at 12 pages. Not really much to say in here I feel. Still feel completely lost about the game lmao.

[REDACTED]

Sart, Elandera, Dannex, Mat, Quinn, Connie, Illwei, Alvron, Order, TJ, Striker, Experience, Ashbringer, Lotus, Kas, Books

Who's the dragon I'm lonely please speak ;-;
oh that's me lol (also wdym you're lonely? I'm offended XD)
Oh smh. xD

By the way, hello and welcome, TJ! For whenever you log on and see this :P

With how control-y Archer is being, I'd think he's already an elim lmao.
I'm here xD I'll have to get on the computer to set the color because last time I chose one the phone y'all yelled at me because it was too close to black but hopefully that's not the case now?? xD

I wonder if Kas really did work out my plan. I don't recall telling him about it but if he has then I'm impressed. Kas said that as he's read as village, no other villager will fight for the gun with him.

What was your plan?

Why...are there no headers? I'mma add a header.

~Meanwhile [REDACTED]~

Man, I think this is the best position the village has been when I left the game? Out of all the games I've played so far? Well yeah they're doing great but it fell apart just now. I have not checked the thread since I saw I had died. Ah that explains it, then.

On one hand- Yeah. On the other hand- I'm....only sliightly worried about what conclusions Kas is going to come to.

I mean, because he's focusing on Striker rn, but hopefully he'll figure it out after that :P.

Also, you've been killed off earlier than later iirc in the games :P Hmm, C2-C3 yeah, also remember lots of C5 deaths?

Also, pleasantly surprised that I did in fact block the elim kill in D1. :P. Things you do when you're out of loop with the thread and have no idea what to do works out for the best :P

Also, smh Illwei for yelling at me for protecting myself -.-

SORRY OAKYYYYY.

I almost asked Burnt to protect me in the Night. Was feeling good about her in the PMs. I should have -.-

Should have should have eh you're dead now :P.

Well, yeah xD

Man, I really dropped my Lotus suspicion hard huh. After Connie flipped.

Smh I was hoping- Did you not find it suspicious at all that no effort was made to save connie onto Lotus? It wasn't even a thunderdome but it was kinda forced between lotus/connie, did connie vote on Lotus? Hold on...I have no, and I also have that Lotus didn't vote connie?

Sart, Elandera, Dannex, Mat, Quinn, Connie, Illwei, Alvron, Order, TJ, Striker, Experience, Ashbringer, Lotus, Kas, Books

Smh he found Reading suspicious for voting on Lotus -.- I feel this is the problem with excessive village discussion. Could lead to elim gritches, but lead to you changing your mind and tunneling as well, because before Kas mentioned it, I was genuinely reading Reading as village. I'm legit kicking myself for not- did I really not mention my suspicion of this (lotus)? I thought of it, and then I was like- nah. People will see this.

I mean, you voted on Lotus, and they shifted to Connie.

Yeah, but I meant in the night- because no one tried to save connie, when it wasn't even a hard case. It was basically nothing :P. And I had just as much on Lotus, but everyone decided to bus instead of even try to save connie. And why would they do that unless they wanted lotus alive as well? That was my initial thinking. Maybe I'm overlooking something here.

I was ready to re-read the thread yesterday and then felt I'm definitely getting killed in the night, and I'd re-read if I survived the night. Oh, well :P.

"FlyingBooks, StrikerEZ, T-J Shade, Devotary of Spontaneity>" - Kas

Since you asked, I'm Sort, playing as Sart. Gears' Iso was kinda annoying because half the game I forgot I was an elim and the other half I was playing how I would normally play.

"It seems strange that Matrim would do this." - Gears

Are people still talking about that??? I didn't do it, I was village -_-

...Why exactly did Ventyl out who he passed the clock to? Wasn't that like the point of passing the clock? I mean, if it went to Stink it doesn't matter but still

Wby are you up so early reee. Why are you up so early. ~~Plus, this is a full 90 minutes later than yesterday~~ Also because he thinks stink stole it or something

Lmaaooo kas out there writing bohemian rhapsody parody in his GM PM xD (wait wait I was just thinking about doing a Bohemian Rhapsody parody yesterday XD) smh and for nothing too :P And it is amazing. Also,

I mean, Makes sense to me :P. He's putting trust in that that...Well...huh. It makes sense on one hand to me :P. Because for Archer it's better to die as village than Elim, no? I mean, I had thoughts on this before... :P. I can't remember what they are now :P. "You either die a hero or you live long enough to see yourself become the villain" :P

Let's see... so

The trust in Archer is because so far, there hasn't been a Shadowblaze in elim hands. In order for there to have been one, the elims would have had to spend a Chalk each cycle drawing an extra line that they didn't claim to cover up the missing Defense. And they would have been risking a scan by a Crab or Line of Making that would expose them. We also didn't see any extra defense, so unless one of the villagers who claimed to be drawing Lines was actually just letting the passive Shadowblaze do the work for them, it couldn't have been stolen from a villager to end up in elim hands. Therefore, the only possibilities are that there was no Shadowblaze in play or that it started in the Hands of the Thief, who would never pass it off or let on that they had it. So until now they could be certain that Archer hadn't been converted.

Sart, Elandera, Dannex, Mat, Quinn, Connie, Illwei, Alvron, Order, TJ, Striker, Experience, Ashbringer, Lotus, Kas, Books

The issue is that Kas is backing off his stake on the gun, letting Archer go for it instead.

Reasoning is that Archer will either die as village, or get the gun to use for the village. Not at all taking into account that the convertible player will then have the gun show while there's now a Shadowblaze in play. An elim gets it today, passes it to Archer tonight, and suddenly elims have an extra kill. My reasoning was Archer's kill order precedes the passing, because it'd have been placed in.

Ohhh okay I haven't been paying attention too much lol yeah that makes sense. Why is Kas doing that? He's trusting Archer to shoot tonight, which...I mean, an extra kill for a player that wasn't elim to start off with is tbh a pretty good trade :P. Like yeah Archer's gonna get killed if he don't shoot maybe, but Elims still get two kills that cycle? If Archer is maximal wincon and really does shoot at night, then this doesn't pop out as an issue.

They're gonna jump on that Books post, I can feel it. It's exactly what Order did :P That's why you claim actions that can't be verified rather than saying you didn't take one.

Ironically, it's the total truth. XD Poor Books.

Man, running a game is more effort than I remember. That's my third mistake this game.

Also, I know this happens every time I run this game, but this is the second time the Forgotten have saved the camp.

They go for getting the village cred, but end up protecting the camp and not even get the village cred because they publicise it in hopes of getting the village cred but that ends up making them suspicious xD Okay, I;m gonna leave some thoughts for Kas

Kas: Not every elim plays the game in a 100% optimal way. Not every elim is perfect and sometimes it's better not to overestimate them. Occam's Razor and all that.

"Also, Devo best Warder

-has Warding specialisation

-never Wards in the entire game so far" - Kas

Well????? Why aren't you voting for her thennnnn???

smh serious!Kas is too tunnely xD

Okay so Kas is tired of getting confused between Araris and Striker and jokingly tells he wants to RNG his vote this cycle. Puts in 6 villagers and 2 elims (Books and Devotary) and RNG chooses Devotary! xD

He says he put everyone in the RNG list except him and Archer, but then realises there are names missing like Reading and Lotus. Now he's added them and re-doing the RNG and it chose Books Imaooooo xD Go with RNG Kas!!

And now he's added himself and Archer and RNG chose Kas :P How do you know all this? Kas has been ranting on Discord xD Never doubt the Gods of Luck and Chance Kas. We might not always know their plans but when they speak, we should listen.

Man everyone is just dissing Ventyl. Bad plan, guys.

Sart, Elandera, Dannex, Mat, Quinn, Connie, Illwei, Alvron, Order, TJ, Striker, Experience, Ashbringer, Lotus, Kas, Books

? I don't see it? He's the only one who trusts Gears, people are voting him...

Someone better get Kas a chull for when he arrives here :P

Think he intends to protect himself for a while at least xD

Why would they kill him when he's doing their work for them.

Very much TMI but that Lotus post seems so elim to me xD

Lmao. See, I don't think it's TMI because I've been sussing lotus from D1 so- xD.

Aww, Striker. You're trusting the wrong people. Don't pass that to them... Yeah I winced a bit at that target list :P And now he's passing a lantern to the elims. Whoops? :P

Night 5

Ohhhhhh noooo Books got the Shadowblaze and Archer got the gun

That was... literally the worst thing that could have happened for the village xD

The only hope is that Archer will have a chance to use it tonight before conversion and might hit an elim.

Bit of friendly fire from the Elim team. They blocked Striker.

"Unless Striker was a hoarder, someone used a map." - Gears

Striker was a hoarder, right? xD

And he's not the only one. There's two other Villagers who have been accumulating items without using them.

Well, in my defense, I was hoping to accumulate a bunch of items then start using them near the end. This Night would've been when I started using them. Also thank god for whichever elim decided to RB me. I can't believe the one player I thought was most likely to be a villager was an elim. Also, screams Almost all of my reads were off the entire game.

I see you sitting there, menacingly, anonymous giraffe. I assume you are Mat? :P Yeah, though I just left the tab open.

Ah okay. I did the same just now too. :P

Anyway, feel free to laugh at me for my reads being freaking awful this game. I am sad that I wasn't able to really use my items and Revocation ability all that much. I guess I shouldn't have focused so much on trying to make sure Stink didn't steal from me. :P

Yeah I was finding it weird, that's the reason I called you out for it last night.

There are more hoarders?? No wonder I spent like half of the game with no items xD

I'm wondering how the elims are going to deal with Books having the Shadowblaze this Night. Passing it off wouldn't do anything, so in order to cover up that Books is elim they'd have to draw two Chalk lines...

Sart, Elandera, Dannex, Mat, Quinn, Connie, Illwei, Alvron, Order, TJ, Striker, Experience, Ashbringer, Lotus, Kas, Books

I'm kinda hoping Archer shoots Books to remove the Shadowblaze from play while at the same time Books gives Archer the Shadowblaze. Archer would then be confirmed village as he killed an elim while also being converted.

Yes, please!

Kas is apparently planning to LoV+ books in an attempt to get books to forget he has the shadowblaze? :P. What's that supposed to mean :P Like, (first of all, wow, this doc is. Colorful.) but like, Vigor+ makes it so that the person doesn't know they were roleblocked, so theoretically if he hits books with it, they'll think that the action went through and that they no longer have the shadowblaze (if books is actually intending to pass it off that is) either way, if it actually works, it should expose books as forgotten :P. But like... he'll still have the shadowblaze? And somehow not know? Idk he says he's checking with Sart about how it would actually work lmao Apparently they lose the item? But I think Kas changed his mind, he's just LoFing himself I guess. Wait what? Lmao.

OH I THINK I GET IT. I think he's thinking the Elims will Target books. If he were to LoV books then the shadowblaze would disappear with them? Books is elim. I believe Kas was trying to keep Books from passing it to Archer to create another elim. With a LoV the pass would be roleblocked. With the specialization, Books would not know his pass failed, theoretically not realizing they still have the Shadowblaze or having it removed in the process. However, if they didn't gain a convert, it would tip them off to either being roleblocked or Archer lying about his role.

I'm so confused... Books is passing the Shadowblaze to Kas and while his teammates go to kill him. So they're trying to destroy it rather than get a conversion.

First, why kill Kas when he is helping you? Second, why get rid of the Blaze when you can just say you sent it to Kas?

They should be trying to get rid of the Lantern Holders.

Come on Devotary, you're letting down Team Purple.

Day 6

So... what exactly happened to the Shadowblaze? :P

And the kills, for that matter- Oh, right, Kas drew a LoF... so he has the Shadowblaze now? But then why would Books claim it was stolen? Kas would obviously know it wasn't. That's probably the point. If Kas trusts Books, then he'd probably be on board with Books suggesting it was stolen (which would imply that Ash has it, which would make sense anyway) rather than "let the elims know where it is."

I don't think Kas has any idea what happened to the Shadowblaze. Best case? VentyI took it and died. Worst is Devo drawing SLoW.

But Elan said that Books was passing Kas the Shadowblaze while they killed him. Kas is alive, so shouldn't he have the Shadowblaze? Unless it actually was stolen :P I definitely wouldn't put it past Ash to steal it XD (also I'd forgotten Devo could draw SLoWs... I guess that means that they didn't have to draw two Chalk lines after all, just one.)

Sart, Elandera, Dannex, Mat, Quinn, Connie, Illwei, Alvron, Order, TJ, Striker, Experience, Ashbringer, Lotus, Kas, Books

So...we don't really know who ended up with the Shadowblaze or where it ended up? Books probably doesn't have it, but Kas didn't end up with it? Would Ash have gotten it if he'd stolen it? Because I wouldn't be surprised if he did. :P Yeah, Ash has LoR+ so he'd have gotten it.

Yeah, it's with Ash apparently Imaoo xD Good for him xD And for the village. Yup. Confirmed stolen by Ash.

Also, smh I told the group PM that something was wrong with Books' response to my plan of using Shadowblaze as an alignment scanner. They shot the idea too fast, their reply felt nervy and then when told it took work, accepted too eagerly. Smh for Striker and Kas and Illwei for telling "I don't think there's anything wrong with it" :P

Night 6

What is with the elims always saying they forgot to submit an action? xD

~~I guess you could say they'd forgotten.~~

Anyway, what exactly does Rainbow Chalk do again?

Rainbow chalk lets you use any Line as if you had the Specialization for it.

Day 7

That was a big mistake by Kasimir asking the town to go for Maps. They had enough items in the supply, but now it's completely bloated. And since the town has had a run of bad luck, the Forgotten will get the pick of the crop. ...I messed something up with the colors. Uh. Someone fix it who saw it before my lag killed it. I think that paragraph was Striker? :P if that's not right just fix it. That paragraph was definitely not me. :P

Anyway, this isn't going very well. Where'd the Shadowblaze end up?

That makes it better, though.

I think I know where the Shadowblaze ended up :P

Yeah, I absolutely stole it, and Sart didn't say if I lost it or not so I assume it's gone and I get to keep it forever now. Haha lucky you Kinda want to not know the Elims yet. Idk.

2014 Kas is making interesting decisions right now lol

I just want him to figure it out. I wanna know why he's going for Burnt. :P

Ararissssssssssssss

Kas is just... this close to cracking this thing. So close.

Devo's really going heavy bussing mode. That could prove useful for them.

Sart, Elandera, Dannex, Mat, Quinn, Connie, Illwei, Alvron, Order, TJ, Striker, Experience, Ashbringer, Lotus, Kas, Books

Night 7

I think this is the third teammate that Devo has bused at the last minute. I wouldn't be surprised if she ends up busing Books if he ends up under fire next day. They'll probably have Books do the kill (in case he's scanned) so Devo can have an action to claim and deepwolf till the end.

Kas has got a group PM with all his trusted villagers and Books is one of them. If anyone is deepwolfing, it's gotta be them and not Devotary. Group PM is called Rithm of Ward :P
Sigh. People were right though about me being disinterested in the game. Maybe I just need to stop playing. I just find em a whole lot enjoyable when I don't care all that much.

Oh and so sorry Illwei for killing you I felt so bad..

Am I purple here? Been a bit. Just came back to like, check and see if anything's been relayed here because why the heck are people trusting Books so muuuuuchhhhh lmaoooo Kas has them in his towncore right now because...books warded once? Lmao. where's paranoid!kas :P
Safe to say if there's gonna be any suspicion on Books, it's gotta come from someone other than Kas. Like Mist voted on them. Watch them kill Mist next :P

Books' vote last turn won't help them be trusted. I'm not entirely sure where that came from.

To be honest I think both Devo and books are in danger.

Kas is definitely not relaxed this game

Day 8

Welcome Kas! Hopefully you're mildly amused by the remaining elims :P

Mildly, yeah - I asked Araris about Books actually, though y'all didn't see that PM because I felt Books was the most hinky of the group, and figured Araris would be my insurance policy since they had been Evil together, but Archer wanted a group PM so :P

Anyway imma focus on getting my game up now, so the kill is convenient, thanks!

I'll merge the thread later tonight. Family has gathered for some tabletop gaming/birthday party and merging on mobile is... not easy.

Welcome Kas! Hopefully this was a nice, relaxing game for you.

I wish, Elan. Had desk duty this week and with caseloads of 90 cases daily, the upcoming LG, and all the crap on my plate, I'm honestly just relieved to be dead and not to feel the obligation anymore. I only got more active because I felt as though I was going to be dead soon and I wanted to help the Village as much as possible before actually dying.

I-

Sart, Elandera, Dannex, Mat, Quinn, Connie, Illwei, Alvron, Order, TJ, Striker, Experience, Ashbringer, Lotus, Kas, Books

Sadge. Araris didn't LOM Books it seems. Araris had no chalk. I advised him to keep an eye on Books as he can't take action tonight. Oh, sadge.

Oh no. This might doom the Camp. Kasimir had 2 Pieces of Chalk when he died, not 1.

Can they not...look...at his action sheet? :P Ngl I stopped tracking it as seriously when I had to start preparing my LG.

The thing dooming village here is them thinking that there might be a Lone Elim. If they thought that there was two, then it would either have to be Gears-Randby, Devo-Books, or Devo-Burnt. Can't be Randby, so it either has to be devo-books or devo-Burnt, in which case you kill devo and watch the other two.

Yeah they're just imploding themselves at this point :P

But like it's be... hard? For them to lose. The camp still needs to be overrun three times and by then it will be pretty obvious. There's not that many possibilities, which is what Illwei just said.

But we're at 6-2 rn, and if they follow the plan (which I sure hope they don't, but- :P) of going Burnt then Araris, then it'll be at 4-2 an then 2-2, and then Elims win. So it's not hard to lose if they don't follow, and I don't think the village is going to band together against Books/Devo if they don't do it today :P. They shouldn't be linking Burnt and Devo. Or going for Burnt first. Why are they going for Burnt first? Glad my gut was right on Burnt.

Because they are :P. Because they think they've caught them and that it doesn't matter which they go first, because they aren't linking Devo/Burnt as much as Archer is :P

What I find interesting rn is Books dropping the inactivity act :P. Unless for some reason books just got a whole bunch more time. I'm wondering if Books' action is fake. Who submitted the kill? It would have to be books, because Devo saw Burnt take the chalk. Books just saw devo target Burnt, which is easily fakeable when they're your teammate. Kas asked araris to follow burnt, he said, but oh well :P

But this game has been nice in being able to see what V!Araris is like, TBH, because before I've only seen him as an Elim (what I can remember) so that's pog :P.

Oh we're talking now huh?

Also sorry Kas. I tried to kill you but it didn't work.. Thanks to LoF my buddy :D

Who is this color? Ah, lotus. Of course we're talking now - I've decided to pop in for a bit :P.

Yeah sorry I had forgotten to do the thingy

Also sorry for killing you illwei.

Also also actually actually I feel kinda bad about not paying attention this game and I feel like I shouldn't be playing the games.

Hm? I don't mind about dying lmao. I had enough to do and whatnot :P.

Why do you feel you shouldn't be playing the games? As in you don't want to?

No, I enjoy playing them, I just feel like I shouldn't because for my maximum enjoyment I need to not get too involved.

I get this. I feel like it's your balance that it's ultimately up to you to strike. I can't go all in on games these days, and I was fighting a lot of burnout from AG7 on top of my work week from hell and other stuff. There were many Turns I just wanted to sit there and wait to get NKed honestly. I guess I'm just saying there's no easy answer, but is this a 'I'm not having fun 'shouldn't' or is this a 'I'm not playing the game Right' shouldn't. The first is a warning sign from you to yourself; the second...unless you're going antisocial chaos, it's not a big deal, play it your way honestly. Its mostly the second. I enjoy playing the games, so long as I don't get too involved, because then I get super stressed out. But just like doing stuff and forgetting about rollover and RPing and not really caring all that much, I think that is kinda fun.

Then you do you, Lotus. Meta got very odd about this before he left, but I'll stand by the claim that from my perspective, I'm always happy to see more RP in the community rather than less. I get the pressure and the guilt - I felt it a lot this game when I was chilling, but IDK. I know it's easy to say resist it when I clearly failed myself, but at the same time, I don't think it's right for us to hold ourselves up to that standard because that shouldn't be the standard for SE and if your style sparks joy for you, hold on to it, you know? It's sad if we feel pressured to give up on that joy or to leave a game/community that gives us joy 'cause we feel we gotta do it like, IDK, Meta. Or 2014 Wilson, maybe.

Yeah. I think it would be best for me to set more RP-focused goals, ie RPing every round and that like. This sounds like a good thing, I think. Because I love the storytelling aspect, I love writing up my death RP. Thing is I just forget and I would like to do that more.

Lotus I feel like you're good and you shouldn't feel like you need to stop playing :P. I think personally I get kinda too worked up over a lotta people who don't seem to play the game, but that's definitely a me problem, because it's still possible for me to find villagers without them putting in 200% effort into solving the game ... :D.

I just don't want to be like 'that inactive player' you know?

I feel like there are ways to do that without going into complete inactivity and I feel that these folks tend to be the ones who draw flak. But...we all have our games, yeah. I know Wilson and EI tell me it was understandable but I still remember each game I inactivated out of and feel guilt over them.

mmmmmmyes :P

My mmmmmmyes has been moved and is no longer relevant ;-;

Cruelly orphaned :P

Interesting post from Archer where he- You know, A healthy dose of tinfoil isn't the worst thing :P. If you're going to tinfoil Archer it's not a bad idea to tinfoil the others :P.

Ah okay. What you are all not seeing is that Dev claimed to LoM+ Burnt and Books was set to LoM Dev and is backing her up. As a result, the PM group is imploding.

Yes, Bystander, notice that Kas trusted Burnt more than Devo and kill Devo first :P

Me @ literally everyone this game: do not sheep, sheepling bad, do the thinking thing >:(

Oh! I have the perfect thing....hold on...

I can't believe this is happening.

Sart, Elandera, Dannex, Mat, Quinn, Connie, Illwei, Alvron, Order, TJ, Striker, Experience, Ashbringer, Lotus, Kas, Books

Everyone is SHEEPING EACH OTHER. I thought this was a joke before, due to the amount of sheeping their was, but literally everyone on the wagon is sheeping except whomever Archer said they were following (even though that person did not provide an explanation).
NO ONE HAS AN ACTUAL REASON TO VOTE ON BURNT

No argument has been presented.
No reasoning has been given.
No one has any idea why they're voting.

Guys, if there isn't a reason to vote for someone, you shouldn't vote on them

I know I'm being a bit dramatic, but this is legitimately the dumbest execution train I've ever seen. It almost makes me want to shove it through for the lolz, but that would defeat the spirit of the game, so instead, I'll tell y'all this:

Don't vote on somebody for no reason. It's dumb. Stop it. Hell, yeet me if you want, at least I have a couple of posts that people think are sus. Just don't vote someone for no reason.

Where did this c/p come from? It's a cypypasta from MU that people post in games lmao.
Amazing :P

Oh, and thanks Sart. This is the perfect death write-up and I only regret I cannot upvote you more times for this.

It is a very good write-up. I'll upvote him for you Thank you, fellow RPer :D

Man, I wish I could find a good RP community. Thing is their all either smut or like way too long posts. I want like 2 or three sentence rp, maybe a paragraph, but not whole pages of RP!!!! The other RPs on the Shard are like that, in my experience. I've thought about joining but I'm scared to. Join with a friend? Who? I'm in a bunch, Connie is in... all of them... anyway, everyone's super nice. Bystander came from there, Fadran was (briefly) here, he came from there. Vapor/Mist are there too.

Hmm. I'd almost ask if you've tried Storium - I'm on it, but the issue is Storium can be a crapshoot until/unless you find a group that works for you. My current group is great, the Star Wars one is driving me up the wall, and my D&D one just finished.

Reminds me I need to work on my DnD campaign

I made lasagne tonight. It's a bit too watery... :P.

Nice!

I believe I have the correct spelling, good sir. I see no red underline on either word, so let's call it a truce :P

TBH, Books would be me sheeping Archer and Dev, because Archer is now 100% on the entire group and was on mobile so I made the PM group for him. Then I had that massive paranoia bout last night when I redid my analysis, decided that Araris and Gears were my top trusts, and checked to discover Araris was Evil with Books recently, and so dumped upon him the task of checking everyone else but especially Archer and Books because Доверяй, но проверяй. Which I had to c/p but hey.

The Elims have noticed that you had 2 Chalk when you died, but are perfectly happy to take advantage of this situation.

It's unfortunate that no one could confirm that Kas had two chalk. That would help them a lot. :/
Doesn't Araris know he has two pieces of chalk?

Also, comment in general. When a new piece of evidence comes up, people tend to forget or completely wipe everything till then, because there is no way the voting pattern and the style of play fits elim!Araris at all. This, basically. Not to mention just... forgetting about Devo's voting patterns (though admittedly the village also knows she voted out all three dead elims) which also is something that they didn't comment that much on while talking about Devo's voting patterns, which still makes me wonder why they're going for Burnt first. Yeah, and all her votes came at a time where it didn't matter if she voted on someone else. And info-grinching at this stage is not ideal at all, Archer!! Gah.

Araris was elim last version of this game, and he is playing completely different this time around. By the end, I was mistrusting him a little, but was 99% sure he was village.

Devo's point is actually really good. Not entirely sure why they pointed it out, but it's true.

Evil Devo still makes helpful points, and my read is that she's trying to push them to the two Evil hypothesis just a little. Which she is fully in the village's pile of two. Not anymore or not necessarily. Rithm of Ward has started to consider Araris-Burnt. It's just making me laugh because I really stopped tracking item inventory, which...is kind of obvious from how Rainbow Chalk isn't there :P And my personal actions log probably clarifies it.

sigh if only someone bothers to check it. I hope Burnt will? She's up for elimination. Honestly Burnt's really out of it and I get why, so I doubt so. Araris is the one to claim you had one chalk, so hopefully he checks?

I mean, to be fair, this game has gone on for 3 weeks I think you mean 84 years :P (sure :P) now. It is easy to forget things that happen.

Elims don't have any Revocation right? Because if Archer has been converted...

Don't think they do. Didn't Archer teach Books at one point though? Also, Ash definitely died with the Shadowblaze. Why did my font get bigger? :P I'm on mobile so have no idea what's going on :P

IDK but I helped you out anyway :P thanks :P

Also, still salty I never got to steal anything. Was gonna try and steal the gun from whoever ended up grabbing it :P

Salty I never got anything to steal with :P

That is indeed a big oof. :P

I said this with TJ elsewhere but I'll just say it again: endgame tunnel vision is definitely a thing. You're dead tired, you've spent 84 years going over the game data, and it's hard to let go of the assumptions. We can definitely tackle this in certain ways and the known counters are there. It's just also my view that this is the point at which paranoia can really save you or damn you, because when you rethink, you can let go of those you should have trusted, or find and reduce trusts. People shouldn't be afraid of revising trusts downwards, especially. It's never too late until a misgrinch.

I'm gonna be sad if we lose this game. I think this is the best the village has played since I've joined. Best meaning using non-mechanical means :P

Yeah. And it's one of the games where we've actually caught low-activity elims. That's rarely happened before because we go after the ones who are active and lose the game to see the elim team with 2-3 lower actives alive.

Yeah, that's why I've been wary of over-focusing on the actives this game, TBH. Sometimes, if you want to find something, you will. (Hello, Striker!)

Hmmm, I wanna see if we'll win in the worst case scenario. Chalk strength is 2 rn, right?

D8: Burnt ML -> Chalk - 3 -> Acid Dropped

N8: Kill RBy -> Successfully Ward? (4-2)

In that situation, kill Randby. Devo can take a bit more flak - killing too many of the others risks people asking if Rithm of Ward has issues. But it's near end-game anyway so I don't think it substantially matters TBH. Yeah, gets rid of SLoW too.

D9: ML Araris -> Chalk 4 (3-2)

N9: Hmmm, kill Gears? Mist? Archer? Idk, might not be a successful Ward. Consider Overrun 1. Gears IMO. Archer can't carry a grinch on his own, and Archer can't Ward or Making+. And if the Village is down to fighting with Archer-Gears-Mist, this is IMO zugzwang anyway. Sart will likely call the game if it gets to outnumbering and they're very close to that. If Gears and Mist both LoF that night, Forgotten can LoV + NK Gears to be certain to remove a threat. Hmm. The one way they could forestall this is if they trust each other enough to LoF but assuming Books is still trusted, Books will know how to break overlapping LoFs. Successful kill makes it 2-2.

D10: Has to be Devotary grinch -> Chalk 3 (2-1)

Hello Lylo Hello Lylo

I'm not thrilled with the shape of you

N10: I hope 1 kill from the overrun scares the village enough to Ward? (So 2 villagers, 3 chalk strength. I really hope they have the foresight to grab some acid or else an overrun here will kill a villager, and elims will kill the other and win.

If so, 2-1. But look: it depends on who's left. Archer can't Ward unless he grabbed lots of acid. And neither Gears nor Mist that I know of have Warding+. And they need chalk - more a Mist issue than Gears, IMO. Ideal scenario: they realise they're at Chalk 4. Archer drops acid in the day, and Gears and Mist Ward at night. Warding success.

Wait I lost count of how many people are there.

Yeah we're losing this if they don't figure out Books quickly.

Burnt is also breaking her brain over the extra chalk and I'm just like. Guys, remember the bit where I was complaining about work nearly every day? :P

But like, surely you would have updated your actions and item grabs right??

Yes and it can be worked out from my public actions and I sent everyone my claim, but what is backreading? :P

You wouldn't even have to back read smhhh, isn't it in the screenshots you sent?

Sart, Elandera, Dannex, Mat, Quinn, Connie, Illwei, Alvron, Order, TJ, Striker, Experience, Ashbringer, Lotus, Kas, Books

50-50. I believe I did but honestly, past few days have been touch and go for me because of how exhausted I've been from everything. And today I just got told of the upcoming coding presentation, so...fun >> You gotta attend or present? :P Presenting to a few high level officers :/ Uhhh, when's that? Hope your weekend is free xD Sort of. I have Hreo's game to get on board with, probably need to figure out a post for the Star Wars game even though my heart isn't in it, but today the LG will be up at least.

"Isn't books- they lom'd Dev, though, given dev posted results first, that could easily be fudged"

Yesss Burnt! Go Burnt! I hope someone picks on this smhhhh

Going through Kas' screenshots I have him possessing 2 pieces of chalk at the end of N6.

I really hope Burnt or someone picks up on the most obviously faked action of the claimed actions. Like, there's only three people that could've submitted the kill, in terms of actions they're claiming that could easily be faked. And Mist's action can very easily be verified.

Exactlyyyy, if someone just went and bothered to check Kas' screenshots! And it shows he picked up Rainbow Chalk in D7 and everyone knew he was using LoM+ in the Night! So it's so clear to see that he had 2 chalks bahhhh Araris...you were so close. So close. Why do you even think Archer got converted?? It's so obvious that Ash would've gone for the Shadowblaze and probably died with it. And why link Archer and Mist?

You can even confirm Archer's teaching people, if you're paranoid still. screams :P

Books refused to confirm it. I must've @ed them twice over it. Also, Archer scanned Mist so Archer should not be having difficulty noting that Mist's items are consistent unless Books passed something to Mist, in which case, Mist should probably sound off on it.

sighhhhh Ararisssss. Burnt was on the right pathhhhh.

Can't rely on Burnt anyway. She's gonna be MIA over the weekend.

Watch her change her username to Mia or something :P

Definitely tried to read all that but then didn't

I came here to be like aaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaa ararissssssssss reeeee :P

I don't understand the conclusions...or.....anything I guess in that post, but maybe it's just the same thing as me not being able to read over the backlog here :P. He just pairs books and gears which makes no sense to meeeeeeee but he also doesn't pair...uh...Devo/Books or even the devo/burnt pair but yeah. Devo/Burnt pair doesn't make any sense at all though now that i think about it because they know there's two chalks, so devo/books should be the obv pair now :P

Of course i say this with the clarity of someone who. Has. TMI. :P.

Two things: has TMI, but also, has not been staring at this game for forever. I really couldn't force myself to continue with analysis at some points. My brain was breaking down, I was just tired, and I was more or less powering on despite being unable to make sense of things. Everyone still here, possibly with the exception of Burnt, has been staring at the same data for cycles on end. That's hard, too.

...Why is Mist the obvious jump here???? Aghghaghaghagahg

Wait, Araris unvoted, and then just didn't include Devo/Books in his possible teams. K.

Gears has Archer in every pair of possible teams and doesn't vote him.

And then who do they think the Non-Rithmatist is????

Sart, Elandera, Dannex, Mat, Quinn, Connie, Illwei, Alvron, Order, TJ, Striker, Experience, Ashbringer, Lotus, Kas, Books

"Bubbles, Araris, Devotary, Ruby, and Mist could not have submitted the NK." - Gears

Okay, well done. But from why WHY DOESN'T THE THOUGHT PROCESS TAKE YOU TO WHO ACTUALLY DID SUBMIT THE ELIM KILL???? Like totally ignoring that part???

You have cleared 5 people who did not submit the kill, and you know you haven't submitted one yourself! That leaves - Books and RBy. Er. If Ruby has been eliminated from the NK pool, then it can't be RBy :P My bad, that should be Archer! Even more clear evidence that Books submitted the kill!!!! Gaahhhh you've got them narrowed down but you didn't realise it???

To be real honest that was why I @ed Araris but I guess I wasn't communicating clearly either. My thought is that if you think your core PM is compromised, which happens, then you have to look to the most uncertain of the trusts. And the weakest within that tier, as I outlined in thread is....

Yeah it was Books :/

It's 1-1-1-1 rn I think? If Mist feels strongly, she might use her Bribe. She might as well. It's endgame. There's no need to hoard. Then the question is, will the elims use..whatever line removes the vote? If they do, it'd be interesting because we'd have a clear indication again of zero actions. Huh, yeah. Good thing about loads of items is they cannot claim to have gone for it and failed xD

Burnt (1) - Books

Mist (1) - Burnt

Devotary (1) - Mist

Araris (1) - Archer

"There is the Books possibility, but then that begs the question: How did Lotus get Warding+?" - Gears

Like, c'mon! Why assume only Lotus?? Why not the other teammate? Then they would look at people with SLoW, and that would give them Devotary!

Future Gears! This is not a criticism about you. You've come so close, but why stop or go off on a different tangent? :/ I just want the village to winnnn bah -.-

Oh, who's the Hyena who looks like a rat? :P Must be me. Lurking again :P Nahh you were visible then :P

I WAS A MOUSE ONCE AND YOU KEEP CALLING ME A RAT SMH. rat buttwrangler

xD Imao no the anon hyena's...depiction? looked like it was a rat

Smh I'm leaving. Frog ain't much better. I guess I'll stay put. Oh, someone else must be the hyena, I'm the iguana. xD are you opening different tabs to get a different animal? :P

Yes. Because I'm not Alv :P He had browser issues that game and we nearly had a heart attack when an army of animals showed up in the Evil doc. Hahahaha, that's hilarious xD

Be more hilarious if he could help us inflate our player count that way :P Imao

Wincon: Reach parity with the village

Opens 20 tabs

Lmao

exhales There we go, Archer. You voted wrong, but at least you figured it out :P

I was just coming here to talk about that. A little sad that he picked the wrong player of the 3, but surely someone else will agree with his reasoning and see that Gears can't be the killer based on some other such thing.

ARARIS!! You figured it out! Nice! Yay! It was coming. Only a matter of time.

Proud of Araris :P

Sart, Elandera, Dannex, Mat, Quinn, Connie, Illwei, Alvron, Order, TJ, Striker, Experience, Ashbringer, Lotus, Kas, Books

Also, my write-up is almost done, thank frith. It's tonally wrong but sign-ups need to go up >>> write-up that is never posted because perma-edited. Kas, you wouldn't happen to be intrested in a co-gm for that game, would you? Hi Lotus, not for this, sorry. It's relatively straightforward, and I like doing write-ups, so I'm usually the co-GM write-ups get foisted on anyway :P
I mean, take the time you need to to get it up. You've still got time. :)

Mmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmmm

Why isn't anyone following Araris? --
My thoughts exactly :P

Sigh. I can't live like this anymore. Okay, please type (if commenting/spectating) above the End of Doc line. This is so anyone heading down will get right to the new discussion.

There we go. No M'Hael, but this will do. For now.

Smh SE veterans be reaallly picky about End of Doc :P

To be honest, this doc doesn't really need it but I hate scrolling down :P It's more a survival tactic for those of us who create huge-arse docs and then need to improvise. Gets hairy scrolling around when you have 100+ pages :P

If I'm ever Evil with you, that's the one thing I'll bring to the team. My dying on D1, and our doc will be mad organised or I will get mad at everyone >>

Don't think you'll ever die D1 with these group of people we're currently playing with :P

Who knows? :P I'm way too obvious when Evil, alas. I will not believe it until I see it :P

Personally, for the sake of my sanity, I really hope you never have to :P I hope so too, that's what I meant by my statement, like I'll not believe it :p I meant that for the sake of my sanity, I don't really want to end up Evil. Villager streak please continue :P

Ahhhh Imao xD

I have to agree with Kas. Ever since MR1 I need to have an organized Doc if I'm going to be in it for any length of time. Yeah. I don't think I did anything on organising for the Ghostblood doc, but once MR1 happened, no. Gotta organise it. Jerric really spoiled the market - heard your Nobles doc was insanely organised. Not only does it make it easier whenever you hop into the Doc but later on, years down the line, they are still very useful if you want to go back and do a reread or to find something.

Hi everyone. I still exist. Uh. Yeah lol. Haven't been paying much attention here oof. (but did wanna say, I second Kas's plea to the Gods of Luck and Chance for my vil streak, if you can call it that, to continue XD I don't want to be elim again either. Fun fact: if I role elim in the next LG, I will once again have had as many elim games as vil games :P)

I'll put in a good word for the two of you.

I, for one, want another elim game. I have like a 12-3-1 ratio for vil/elim/neutral and the last time I was evil was Quinn's first game. Lol wait really? Huh, you're right... you haven't been on any elim teams with me since then, and I'm elim basically every game so you must be correct about that XD

If I'm evil again in a row I might go on strike

Sart, Elandera, Dannex, Mat, Quinn, Connie, Illwei, Alvron, Order, TJ, Striker, Experience, Ashbringer, Lotus, Kas, Books

That would be your fourth elim game in a row, right? The AG, QF50, and this game, plus rolling elim again?

And here I am with a 15-0-3 record xD Oh yeah that's right, TJ's never been elim... I always assume you must have been at some point, since you've played twice as many games as me. But no. oof maybe in the next LG?

I still can't believe TJ beat my record for longest time before getting his first elim game. I went so long without an elim game. And I've still only had 6. Out of 41. Though, if my current pattern of alignment holds up, I should be getting elim in the next LG. I tend to go elim, village, elim again, followed by a bunch of village till I hit elim again. :P QF50 was elim, this game was village, so theoretically LG74 should be elim, if the pattern is gonna hold up. :P

Also, I definitely prefer playing elim to playing villager. I love getting to talk in the doc and plot with other people and doing the dance of lying while not lying and stuff. It's really fun.

Poor Jain, their streak of never being evil never made it that far. I think 11 or 12 was all they got to before their first evil game. Gyorn, right? LG12. Good times. We nearly made it, too....So close yet so far. I had 12 before I had my first evil game. My 13th was my first evil.

I think we should have an award for it like how the Dodo Award is for the longest death streak. The Reluctant Villager Award? Differentiated from Good Guy Fain? :P Fain was a wannabe villager. :P

(who is the current holder of the Dodo Award, out of curiosity? No idea. Also, how does one calculate that anyway? Like, is it "longest streak of deaths within the first x cycles"?)

I mean, if we're talking total times that someone died with the first x cycles, I am probably close to winning that. :P

It's how many games played in a row without surviving.

I left SE around the time when Hael, you, and Wilson were still scrapping for Dodo status, and my brain has been permanently locked in that period. I took it from Maill and lost it to Wilson and Hael's streaks. Yeah, to me, Hael is basically the Dodo, just as I was the Aggro Magnet for a while.

Night 8

I've been elim in 4 out of 7 games, including all 3 LGs that I've played. I guess the new strat for LGs is to execute me D1? Oof I feel that though. I also had 4 out of 7 at one point... two QFs, an LG, and an MR. Mixed bag with results though. I won half of them, but I died in the first two cycles in the other half :P

Boom.

"Here's a thing that's bugging me. Flyingbooks knows of the scan plan. We said, take your pick of Burnt and Devo and scan them. They chose Devo and specifically said they'd do the specialized version. They committed to that at 7pm, before Kas mentioned at 8pm that they planned to do LoM+. What was their plan if nothing had been said? Perhaps one of you can see something I've missed, but on re-read, it looks like they picked a person who, if they're e/v, would have been hard to predict the actions of. They just got lucky Kas said what Devo would do. Or Devo is their teammate."

Sart, Elandera, Dannex, Mat, Quinn, Connie, Illwei, Alvron, Order, TJ, Striker, Experience, Ashbringer, Lotus, Kas, Books

Here we go.

Mmm

Where did that quote come from? Probably Gears' iso Ah. I didn't read through that because it was so long. :P Rithm of Ward PM. I shared it because only Books and I are still in that PM, so the thread wouldn't be able to see it.

So I. Decided. That I'd sign up for a game on another site (that I happened to be on for something else anyway and only just now realized it has mafia). And it wasn't... advertised... as a bastard mod game but it kind of is one? Like. The mod keeps making rule-changes (the most recent one being "anyone who comments on the severity or integrity of my modding gets a warning"). So yeah. That's fun. What site? Oh lol it's the Art of Problem Solving website. My old math curriculum. There's a subsection of the forum that's mafia. Huh, interesting. I miss SE already XD the format isn't as nice, you can't edit posts, games are way less complex and interesting, no PMs, etc. etc. Which like, some of that stuff is normal for mafia threads ik but still. Found the thread lol yep.

The Shard spoils us for PMs and formatting. Many sites just don't have it. We are lucky to have all the bells and whistles we have. Sure does.

Day 9

Did Devo get blocked? I forget if that action is possible other than a LoF :P

Or I guess she could have just not submitted a kill for the sake of having a confirmable action. Which makes sense.

Devo's trying so hard...

Yaaaah, I can respect that. Though I was thinking if she votes for herself, she could be like one of the few elims who has had the final vote on each and every one of her team members xD

I mean, given Devo's standard late voting, she can both try hard and vote for herself a short while before rollover :P Eat her cake and have it, too.

Hello anonymous Walrus! How's it going? Also, it would be very funny if she voted on herself at the end. :P

This is like the most I've ever seen a player bus :P I mean...there might be other cases, but I've never seen any myself, I don't think. (I mean. I once bussed two of my teammates--one unnecessarily--and then convinced my team to bus me. Not exactly my best showing, but we won anyway :P. Wait, Striker, you were on that team XD weren't you? No, wait, that was Snipexe. You were in the game though.) What game was this? MR47 :P you were in that one... right? I was. Forgot what game that was. :P

I mean yeah. Devotary couldn't have helped in most cases, but still :P

I do feel kind of bad for her though. Like...did the camp ever get overrun? I can't remember if we did. Plus I know what it's like to be the last elim. It's not fun. The one time I was the last elim, that was my first loss as an elim. :P Same. ~~Though that game was broken for multiple reasons~~ Wait why was that game broken? It's been too long and I don't remember the details anymore. :P Also were you in that game? If so, wow that was a lot more recent than I thought it was.

Sart, Elandera, Dannex, Mat, Quinn, Connie, Illwei, Alvron, Order, TJ, Striker, Experience, Ashbringer, Lotus, Kas, Books

No, it didn't :P But it could have if Books didn't Ward once :P I thought that happened with Lotus, too. Yeah but Lotus dropped Acid and claimed it. If she hadn't villagers still would have Warder the camp because strength was only 1 that cycle. This was us in MR3 also - the Forgotten were often the only ones keeping the camp safe. If Wyrms, Twei, and I hadn't been so concerned about following the plan, we probably could've pulled off a WC kill or two. But not that it matters, I suppose - WC swarm might've just changed the dynamic of the game, making it harder for us to hide.

Also, does anyone want to hear me ramble about my Radiant University game I'm working on? I'm basically making a Stormlight version of the KKC games.

Oh hey how's that going?

I haven't worked on it in a bit (just got busy, despite the snow storm), but I'm wanting to work on it a little bit. I've made basically an entire economy based around spheres and stormlight. The spheres have monetary values (for buying items and paying tuition and other stuff), but they also have stormlight value when infused. And there's different monetary values for the spheres depending on if they're infused or not. Right now, I have it so that spheres go dun after two turns of being withdrawn from the bank. So like, you submit a bank action D4, for example. Your spheres wouldn't go dun if you don't use the stormlight in them by the end of D5.

Hmmm, yeah I remember reading this part, yup.

I got confused for a sec because I mixed up your color and Ash's. :P

Anyway, I'm just wondering if two turns for spheres to go dun is too long. Like, I don't think it would be too hard for people to not have spheres go dun since they know it's possible and stuff. Maybe I could put a limit on the amount of spheres you can withdraw/deposit per turn?

Yeah, the latter seems to be better. I think 2 turns thing is fine.

Okay coolio. Now I just gotta decide what that limit should be. I'll worry about that after I've figured out the stormlight cost of all the actions and stuff. Not looking forward to that part. :P

Oof yeah :P Currency stuff is always a dilemma for me.

I feel pretty good about the prices I've set for the tuition and like the amount of stipends people get and stuff, but like...man, having to go through and set the prices for all of the surge actions and eventually the items...not looking forward to that. :P

sigh yeahhhh

I also need to decide on what items to use. I'll probably be reusing a lot of similar concepts of the items in the LG66 rules. Obviously besides the Ierasium. :P I might add a spanreed, though if PMs are normally open anyway, I'm not sure what the point of a spanreed is. Maybe safe PMs? Like, your PMs can't be spied on?

Hmmm, or a secret message without revealing the sender?

Oh that's an interesting idea. Hadn't thought of that.

Though that gives like advantage to the sender, might be interesting.

Gives like advantage? I assume that like just means um basically. :P And yeah, I do think it would be interesting to be able to do that.

Hmm like the sender knows who the other end of the spanreed is, but the receiver doesn't, but realised, the receiver can send one on their own to someone else too :P

I mean...I was thinking that the spanreed holder could send the message to any player, not just someone who has a spanreed.

Sart, Elandera, Dannex, Mat, Quinn, Connie, Illwei, Alvron, Order, TJ, Striker, Experience, Ashbringer, Lotus, Kas, Books

Huhh, yeah that's better for the game, but wouldn't exactly make sense flavor-wise.

I mean, yes, but the other idea would need players to know who have spanreeds in order to send messages, which kind of defeats the purpose. :P

Storm it. There are two great games open for sign ups that I really want to play but I just don't have the time. D: Oof. For both, or either? Either or both. I barely have time to check in here once a day at moment. I think I'll have time to play another game in about 5 weeks or so. I'm sorry you can't play Alv. :(

Spectator Game 1: This is a Bad Idea

Welcome to SG1, I may or may not be your GM.

Rules:

Eh, we can make stuff up later Seems legit (each person who signs up can add a rule? :D) This has been attempted in a real game, actually. It went very very badly :P

Roles:

We'll probably have some. Definitely Choose-your-own-alignment XD I see a 1v5 approaching :eyes:

Shhhhhhhh stop talking in the GM section XD no u

Signups end whenever we have enough people. Sounds good
