

Theme/Topic	Theme: language through food culture Topic Food waste and innovative solution
Type of activity:	Writing/Speaking/Listening/Reading/Culture
Activity URL (if applicable)	YouTube: Anti-Food waste pioneer https://www3.nhk.or.jp/nhkworld/en/ondemand/video/2042095/
Brief description of activity:	Students explore sustainable solutions to reduce to reduce food loss/waste Group activities: Find a case of any food loss at the individual or organizational level. Group members willbe brainstorm ideas and design a plan foran innovative and sustainable solution to solve the issue. Individual participants within each group will deliver a portion of a five-minute class presentation.
STANDARDS	LESSON OBJECTIVES
What are the communicative and cultural objectives for the lesson?	Communication and Cultures	Which modes of communication will be addressed?	Interpersonal: students will develop speaking and listening skills by working with classmates and students in Japan.
		<input type="checkbox"/> Interpersonal	Interpretive: students will develop reading skills (skimming and scanning, deep understanding) by research on food loss and finding solutions in google or articles and/or other materials. Presentational; Students presents the project.
		<input type="checkbox"/> Interpretive
		<input type="checkbox"/> Presentational
If applicable, indicate how this lesson connects to other standards.	Connections	Students will use the Japanese language to expand their knowledge of food loss/waste, socialenvironmental issues to facilitate higher thinking skills to solve the problem of food loss/waste.
	Communities	Students build communitiesby communicating in Japanese with their classmates and, with students located in Japan.
	Cultures	Cultures: Students use Japanese language to investigate the cultural components of food loss and its solutions in Japan. Students engage with students in Japan to find cultural similarities and differences in communication style and lean intercultural communication strategies.

Modified from: ACTFL performance guidelines for the project