

Dr. Pablo L. Martínez Torres is the World Languages Curriculum and Foreign Exchange Specialist for Polk County Public Schools. He has directed the design, development, and implementation of the WL Curriculum Maps, textbook adoption process, and other district initiatives since 2014. Pablo has led the reculturing methodology process, shifting from grammar-based and audiolingual methodologies to proficiency and performance-based in Polk County Schools World Languages classrooms. He has encouraged and trained teachers to use innovative strategies geared toward meaning acquisition and classroom climate improvements, such as Comprehensible Input, Virtual Reality, TPR, TPRS Storytelling, Free Voluntary Reading, MovieTalk, PictureTalk, CalendarTalk, Tech Apps, Brain Breaks, and Flexible Seating.

He is the current president of the Florida Foreign Language Managers of Education-WL District Supervisors (FFLAME), the Editor of the Florida Foreign Language Association (FFLA) E-Magazine and Journal, and the 2021 FFLA President-Elect. In 2017, Pablo was the recipient of the World Languages Supervisor of the Year Award in Florida. He holds a bachelor's in Secondary Education-History from the University of Puerto Rico-Río Piedras Campus, a master's in International Politics from Troy State University, and a doctorate from the Florida Southern College's Educational Leadership program. Pablo completed his Dissertation on Principals' Instructional Leadership Regarding World Languages Programs: An Explanatory Sequential Mixed-Methods Study. Dr. Martínez was recently appointed as a Dissertation Director of the Inter American Second Language Research Ph.D. program. He also collaborates with World Languages organizations as a leader, keynote speaker, and presenter, with school districts and charter schools as an independent consultant, and with local newspapers and textbook companies as a freelance writer and reviewer.

Pablo is one of the Martinez-Torres siblings, a group of Puerto Rican siblings who studied in Puerto Rican public schools and overcame economic hardships. Go to <https://www.themartineztorresscholarship.com/> for more information about the Martinez-Torres siblings.

He loves to travel, running, and reading. He lives with his wife Karla and toddler daughter Adrianna Zoe in Lakeland, FL.

Latest Publications

Martinez, P. (2022, January). High School Principals' Instructional Leadership towards World Languages Program: A Sequential Explanatory Mixed-Methods Study. ProQuest. Florida Southern College: Lakeland, FL.
<https://www.proquest.com/pqdtglobal/dissertations-theses/high-school-principals-instructional-leadership/docview/2911081217/sem-2>

Martinez, P. (2021, April). Enseñanza de Lenguajes Extranjeros en las Escuelas Públicas del Condado de Polk. Viva Polk Magazine. Retrieved from <https://en.vivapolk.com/>.