Hi [firstname],

Let's get real...

Every business has one big weakness: missed calls.

When customers try to reach you and no one picks up, here's what happens:

- ✗ They hang up and call your competitor
- ✗ You lose a potential sale
- ✗ Your marketing dollars go to waste

Until now, the only options were:

- Hire a call center (expensive 💸)
- Stay glued to the phone 24/7 (impossible 😞)

That's why we built Callsi — the AI-powered calling agent that finally solves this problem.

👉 It answers inbound calls, makes outbound calls, qualifies leads, books appointments, and even closes deals — all while sounding natural and human.

Now you can give every lead and every customer the attention they deserve — without ever missing an opportunity.

 Before Callsi officially launches on September 18th, There'll be a special 2-day webinar training where you'll see it live in action.

In that webinar you'll learn:

- How AI powered telephone marketing can grow your business on autopilot
 - How you can qualify leads, attract more sales and get more customers with AI.
 - Discover how AI can set and manage appointments
 - How to handle sales and support incoming calls using AI
 - How to build a system that frees you up for more productive and enjoyable tasks while AI handles your telemarketing
 - Set up perfect workflows to turn leads into customers
- And more...
