

The Colloquium* is looking for articles for Volume 10 No.1!

Articles can be either analysis or opinion based. Below are some ideas for potential topics, but feel free to contribute your own.

The Colloquium also accepts rolling submissions for its digital section. These tend to be more short-form, and can be on anything that interests you in the current international sphere.

Please consult our writing guide for more detailed instructions.

If you'd like to write on any topic in particular that appears below, claim it with your name and email.

Any Questions? Message the Section Editor or email thecolloquiummag@gmail.com

Prompts:

Analysis Section - Editor Ian Cooper

Topic	Writer name and email
Aid to trade pivots: how are major actors shifting from classical development aid toward investments and security partnerships
Migration policy: How are people flows weaponised along migration corridors?
Analysis of UN Secretary General Election
Analysis of China, EU, US, other AI Policies
Analysis of consequential Autumn elections (can pick one, or multiple) ● Brazil: 4 October ● Israel: 27 October ● United States: 3 November

Analysis of rising global bond yields, rising global debt
Analysis of the role of corporations in diplomacy (see major tech CEOs at G7, Altman and Amodio at UNGA)

Opinion Section- Editor Philip Theiss

Topic	Writer
The effectiveness of sanctions: humane alternative to war or lazy, low-accountability foreign policy?
How is a major news story being seen in your country or community, and how does that differ from how it's covered in Ireland or the West?
What's one thing about how the world discusses your region that you'd change?

Features Section- Editor Lara Dumani

Theme name: Border & Belonging	Writer
Who Gets to Eat? The Politics of Food	Aoife O'Neill (oneila66@tcd.ie)
When Land Disappears: Climate Displacement for Small Island Developing States (SIDS)
A Nation Without Land: Sovereignty within Climate Displacement

Digital Section- Editor Sumsoar Khan

Topic	Writer