Insert arrangement and/or photo of yourself here:	Tell us a little about your classes and teaching style and your training or whatever you wish to share. I teach Ikebana classes through the School District Adult Education at Sunnyvale, California. The Wafu School of Ikebana emphasizes natural beauty; that is, I share the respect for the characteristic beauty of flowers and plants in their natural state, season by season, in classes. Ikebana has been a transformative experience for me, opening my eyes to the art of natural beauty. The entire process of creating arrangements is a journey inward, revealing deeper aspects of nature and self.
