

Final Reflection Grading Rubric

The final reflection is graded for two categories of criteria:

- Substance
- Reliability

Substance (15 pts possible)	Yes! (15 pts)	Good/Partial (10 pts)	Needs Work (5 pts)	No Credit (0 pts)
Learning point ONE clearly identified and discussed from individual perspective.	Point clearly identified; includes specific/quote/cite from course material or engagement (e.g. discussion post); describes individual perspective/impact.	Point identified; more general or vague reference to course material; includes individual perspective/impact.	Missing identification of learning point, reference to course material, or individual impact.	Missing identification of learning point, reference to course material, or individual impact.
Learning point TWO clearly identified and discussed from individual perspective.	Point clearly identified; includes specific/quote/cite from course material or engagement (e.g. discussion post); describes individual perspective/impact.	Point identified; more general or vague reference to course material; includes individual perspective/impact.	Missing identification of learning point, reference to course material, or individual impact.	Inadequate to earn points.

“Final Reflection Grading Rubric” by Anne Nichol for Open Oregon Educational Resources is licensed CC BY-NC-SA 4.0.

Learning point THREE clearly identified and discussed from individual perspective.	Point clearly identified; includes specific/quote/c ite from course material or engagement (e.g. discussion post); describes individual perspective/im pact.	Point identified; more general or vague reference to course material; includes individual perspective/im pact.	Missing identification of learning point, reference to course material, or individual impact.	Inadequate to earn points.
---	---	---	--	-------------------------------

Reliability (5 pts possible)	Easy to read and understand (5 pts)	Difficult to read (0 pts)
Organized and free of significant errors that impact reading.

Excellent work! (50 pts)	Good effort. (35 pts)	Needs work. (0 pts)	Final Assignment Score
Assignment met full criteria. Excellent submission.	Assignment met most criteria.	Several things missing here. Let me know if you have questions.	Total Points