

frenchCamp

"Des profs qui apprennent, ce sont des élèves qui réussissent"

Quand? Thursday, July 5th 2012

Où? O Block, Mokoia Campus, Waiariki Institute, Rotorua
(Access Map Here)

Combien? FREE - Venue sponsored by NZAFT

Quoi? The focus is on teaching and learning French (communication, language, interculturality), e-learning and education in general, sharing ideas we've discovered and learning from each other.

Qui? A day for teachers of French to collaborate in a relaxed setting, based on the ever popular EducampNZ format: no helicoptered in keynote speakers, no timetabled sessions, no passive listening: we, the participants, provide the content!

Interested? Add your name to the list here, add something you would like to share and/or open a discussion about (a link to a site, an inspirational video, a resource, something that keeps you sane, a teaching tip etc)

Prepare to talk about it for 2 minutes and say why you chose it! (No worries, the timer will be on!)

Add your question(s) too, someone will help!

9.30am : Bienvenue and Sign In + 1st coffee!

10.00: World Café, setting the scene

11.00ish: 'Smackdown' of cool stuff- ideas, tools, websites, apps, activities to share... (what you have indicated on the list)

11.30: Your time- 1st round

12.30pm: Shared Lunch (and more talking!)

1.30: Your time - 2nd round

2.30: Get together and take aways (don't think food...)

3.00: Au revoir!

frenchCamp check list - Just pack

- a board marker (or a coloured felt)
 - a stamp (yes, a NZ standard post stamp!)
 - your laptop (make sure it can connect to WiFi)
 - something (yum) to contribute to the shared lunch
 - a willingness to go with the flow and let go of NCEA for a day
 - your best French accent as there is going to be plenty of talking (and listening!)
