

Authors: ARON, Werner & Gert

Our family arrived in Guayaquil in April 1939, and went directly to Puyo, where we raised cattle until the end of 1948. Later, my father, Werner Aron wrote his memoirs for family and friends. When he died suddenly in 1967, I completed the memoirs, and more than 20 years later we had them printed as a book under the title "The Halo of the Jungle." The German version, called "Der Heiligenschein des Urwalds," is available as a manuscript.

The Halo of the Jungle

The "Halo of the Jungle" is the true story of the Aron family's forced emigration from Nazi Germany to Ecuador in 1939, and the 10 years they lived on their farm homestead in the eastern rainforest.
