

THE

COMPASS

The Northside Elementary News

November 2016

Editor: Alanna, Trinity, Mieyari, and Joyah Technical Assistants: Brandon, Finley, Eli

Editorial by Meyari

source: Charles Schulz

Remember to keep your head up even if your presidential candidate didn't win. Just keep working, be nice to each other and respect other people's opinions.

Glow Dance by Catherine

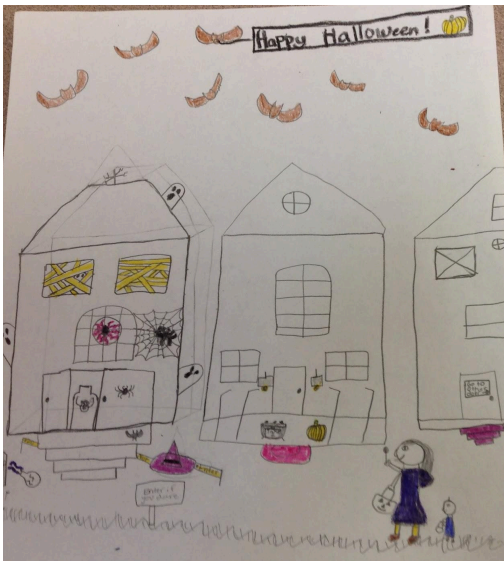

Source: levelupnews.com

Friday, October the twenty eighth was the second Northside annual Fall Glow Dance. I think that everyone that went had a great time. I went with my friend, Camille, and we had a blast. A lot of Northside teachers were there. People were dancing with all of their glow stuff. Ms. Michelle took some people outside on the dome. We played until everyone heard there was finally pizza.

At first there was no pizza. Then they ordered pizza, but not enough. Only the front half of the line got pizza. Bummer! The rest of the line ate chips. But overall I think it was great!

Halloween Illustration by Alyssa

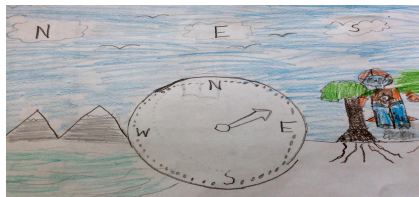

Clinton vs. Trump By Alanna

Source: homedepreschool.com

The election season made things pretty tense. Both major candidates did great. In the end Trump won. The U.S. seems divided on how they feel about the election results. The important thing our country has learned from this election is that it doesn't only matter who is elected president but also how they run the country. I hope that our country will find a way to work together so that we are all free, equal and united.

THE

COMPASS

The Northside Elementary News

November 2016

Who would you vote for? Poll of 56 5th graders by William

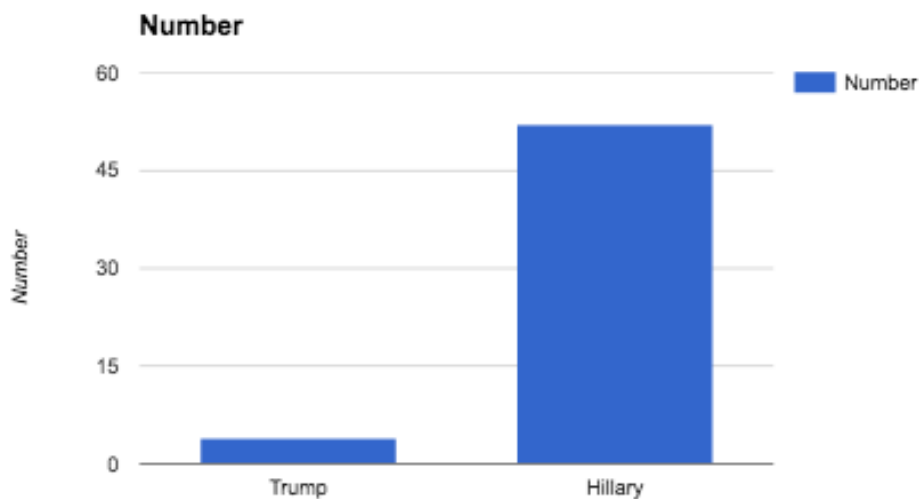

Illustration by Iris

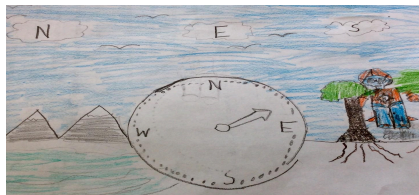

Poem by Lois

Black bird crack

Crack in the wall
where black birds sing
Crack in the wall
where we can hear the door bell go ding a ling ling Crack in the wall
where teardrops fall
Crack in the wall
where we lost our families sacred doll
Crack in the wall
Black bird crack

Comics
by Caroline

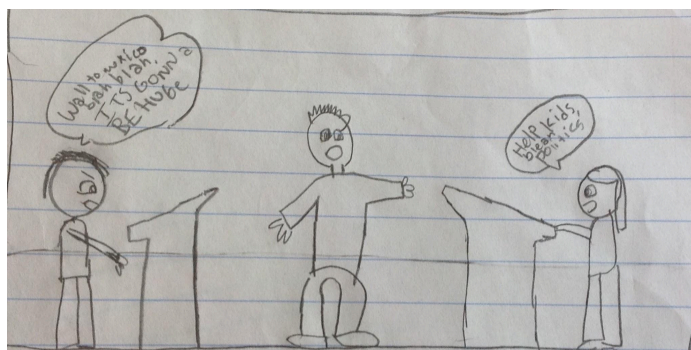

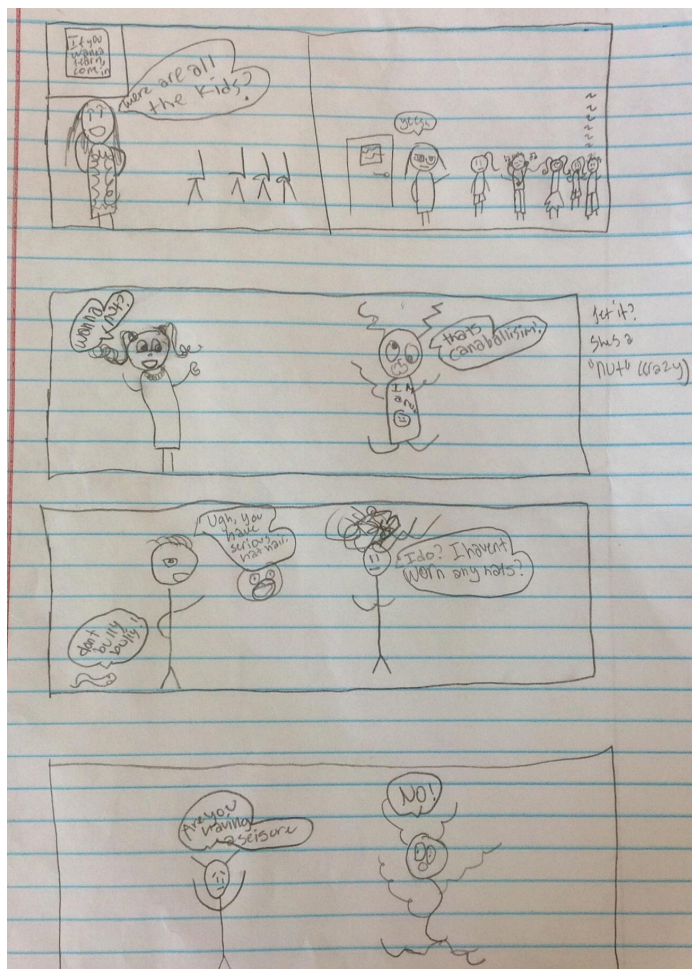

THE

COMPASS

The Northside Elementary News

November 2016

Jokes

By Matthew

What's the first event in the Winter Olympics?

Answer: the North Pole Vault

