 Daddy Dearest

Trivia

! Note: the trivia info in this document does not change the current trivia information. It's just rather an add-on to the current while some changes the current due to a new redesign/retcon. !

- From the previous document, Dearest was meant to have an implication to have the ability to empower himself by anger but was retconned.
- Dearest's new design is based on Jurard T Rexford from Hololive, who debuted as the 3rd gen member of the Holostars EN branch, ARMIS, on November 17th, 2023.
- The beard design is based on his D-Side's variant beard design.
- Dearest's lion skin cape is based on Thragg's Battle Beast cape after his successful kill on the former.
- From his original design, Dearest didn't wear a ring on either his left or right hand but in his FutureNF look, he has a ring on his right hand. Coincidentally, Dearest's design from another Sonic.EXE mod, Undying Phoenix, depicted the character to wear a ring on his right hand but unlike FutureNF's Dearest who had his ring on the tip on his finger, Undying Phoenix's Dearest had his ring at all the way to the top of his finger.
- Dearest's new render is based on Jotaro's render from Part 6, Stone Ocean.
