

Lucidaizy's terms of service

By commissioning me you agree to my terms of service as well as acknowledge them.

General Rules

MY WORK IS TO NEVER, EVER TO BE USED FOR AI.

- As the artist, I have the right to refuse a commission request without written or verbal reason.
- payment should be upfront unless discussed otherwise. i only take payments in usd via paypal unless we have discussed otherwise.
- You MUST provide me a visual reference; otherwise this is considered a custom. I will not do commissions based on written references unless you pay an extra designer fee.
- I will do minor edits for free, anything beyond that comes at a price. unless it is a mistake on my part, with proof provided on the reference given, or info provided. example; miscoloring from not coloring picking correctly vs not the right color despite the ref / info.
- I will allow you to change your info / the character present / the reference provided an unlimited amount of times until a work in progress is provided and confirmed with the commissioner. This being said, I will not make drastic changes to a commission once the commissioner has given me the green light after I provide them with a sketch.
- I keep full rights to the artwork created. You are not allowed to profit off of my artwork without my written consent. If you wish to commission me for commercial / marketing reasons, we can always discuss this but there will be a price increase.
- My turnaround time is anywhere from a couple days to 3 months. anything past 3 months i usually will refund and/or talk to you about. I always try to have contact with my commissioners and update them on any status that will interfere with them receiving their product.
- I prefer if my clients talk to me casually when discussing commissions! 😊

Payments

- All payments must be in USD. please budget accordingly so that your currency will equal that amount in USD.
- I only take payment plans on purchases more than $120. 50% of your payment is required up front upon any payment plan unless discussed otherwise.
- I will only start on a commission once I've received full payment.

Refunds

- Refunds may be given proportional to the amount of work not done yet. For example, if I have done the flats and you will want a refund, you will only get the amount of money equivalent to how much time it would have taken to do the shading and background.

Drawing Process

- I generally send a sketch to confirm a pose and details as I go, but otherwise I prefer to finish it and not wait for communication delays if the client is not present.
 - There are unlimited changes until I move onto the next process. If you confirm you like the pose, sketch, concept, ect. But then decide you want me to change the pose after I've started linework- I will charge $20 for any additional edits.
- A maximum of two alternate versions will be allowed per picture.
- I am an extremely messy artist. I feel as though it's just a part of my style. If blotched pixels, uncleaned lines, ect. Bother you, I will go through and clean up the artwork completely for an upcharge.

Distribution / Use

- Commissioners are free to post their commission anywhere they please with credit (credit is generally greatly appreciated and helps both the artist and those who are interested in seeing more art like it!)
- Commissioners are free to alter their commission as they please, they are buying my commission as well as the personal rights to it (not commercial rights.)
 - For example, if someone were to buy a sketch from me, they are allowed to go to an artist and have them finish that sketch.
 - If someone were to buy an outline from me, they are allowed to color it and experiment with it as they please.
 - Flat colors, they are allowed to shade it -- they are even given a .PSD or .Clip file (for 10$) to alter but not sell as a base.
 - If it's an adoptable, they are allowed to resell it.
- Please don't use my artwork without commercial use without my written consent.
- I DO NOT ALWAYS UPLOAD ALL OF MY ART. But this doesn't mean you can't! You are more than welcomed to upload your commissions from me as long as you properly credit me. Please do not pressure me to upload your commission.

Adoptable / Designs

- You can change or edit anything about my designs. You can use them as fursonas, personas, OCs, ect. Please just keep the original artwork with the design.
- You may co-own my designs with another person, however I am not responsible for any co-ownership disputes, drama, ect.
- You are always welcome to take inspiration from my work, just please do not copy them 1 for 1. There is a difference between inspiration and copying. It is not my job to educate you, but please respect my hard work.
- You can trade / resell the adopts you have bought from me. Please do not scalp my designs or over price them.

- You can resell a design for the amount you bought them for + the price of any additional art you have commissioned, drawn, ect. You may not add on the value of gifted art.
- I will never revoke a design. Once you buy a design, they're yours. If you break my TOS, it will result in a public blacklist.
- You are NEVER allowed to add on additional rules to my designs.

Examples:

- you can't resell them after you buy them from a previous owner.
- you must tell me when you resell them!!

These are not requirements for my designs. If the previous owner is regretful of selling the design, that is their own fault. Do not bring me into your disagreements.

Customs

- When describing your custom, please be as clear as possible.
- I LOVE references, moodboard, short descriptions, playlists, ect. Any amount of inspiration is great for me!
- Please be mindful of walls of text for details. I work better with 1-2 sentence bullet points!
Example: - round body type, feminine build // - Shoulder length chestnut hair // - blue siamese point feline, with perky ears // - short, bandaged tail. // - hazel eyes.
- I will NOT make copycat designs. I will not reference another artist's designs to mimic it for you. I don't mind if you link me to a general folder on toyhou.se of designs you like so I can have a grasp of elements you prefer– but do not be surprised when I do not copy these designs.
- Please be honest with me. I am more than happy to provide changes, edits, ect. Within reason as I am working on your design. I want you to be happy with your finished product. I promise I will be more hurt in the future to hear you had a bad experience due to lack of communication. I want to give you the design you're paying for.
- Constant big changes will be an extra charge. [ex: themes, complete overhauls, ect]
- I provide WIPs unless stated otherwise! (it will be clear if they're 'surprise' customs). I usually try to get a sketch / concept out within the first 2 weeks of payment.
- If you can not complete a payment, I am allowed to recycle the design into a new one and resell them.
- You will only be partially refunded based on my completed work if you request a refund.
Example: I have provided concepts / sketches but you've decided that our visions are not the same and request a refund. You will not be refunded for the concepts / sketch– but for the costs of the design I have not completed.

If you are rude or make me uncomfortable, I hold every right to deny service to you without providing a reason.

If you do a chargeback on me, I will post about it. Though there isn't much I can do– I can warn fellow artists of your behaviors.
