*Each team may have four (4) participants. Person #5 is optional. Only four people can battle at any one time, and participants cannot be changed during a battle.

Team Reading Form

Use this form to track who is reading or has completed each book. Before battles begin, your team should have completed every book on the season's list – if possible, more than one person should read each book. The teams who tend to do best in competition are the ones where several people have read the same books.
