RULES / REGULATIONS

GENERAL

• I have had no interactions with the Blank Period or New Era yet, so if I am prompted to write in that verse, I will do my best, but I may get things wrong.

PLEASE PLEASE be patient with my IC and OOC. that means writing-wise, IMs, discord, asks, etc. I am not and will not always be in the mood for chatting or even writing.
 Just because you see me writing does not mean I am willing to have a conversation. Just because I am having a conversation does not mean I will be writing.

 That being said, if I haven't replied to you, do not guilt trip me to respond. Sending me another message to grab my attention is fine, but do not act like a victim because I did not respond fast enough for your liking.

• I have a job, I have a life. I have several chronic illnesses, some physical, some mental. I will not always be around.

 There is some fandom material I won't interact with, such as Attack on Titan, and horror-based movies/live-actions.
 Horror anime is okay with me.

• My banner graphic was made by 9fox & drawn by roulotte

- I am multi-ship and ship exclusive! I very much enjoy shipping. That said, Gaara is not the type of character who can be shipped quite easily. I am open to the idea, but it does require plotting, familiar interactions, and development. If I'm not familiar with your character, it will take some time for us to build a relationship between our muses to that point.
- I am currently shipping with Lee, Naruto, and Hinata. I will not be shipping with duplicates of those muses.
- I reserve the right to politely decline a ship. Please respect my boundaries with this.

CONTENT WARNING

- There WILL be triggering topics on this blog. I will try to tag everything accordingly in tags that are relatively universal so they are easy to block.
- Things that will be present are child abuse, self harm, neglect, homicidal ideation, PTSD, hallucinations, possession, family death, etc.
- That being said, if your trigger/nsfw tags are made with fancy text or random words, I might not follow you back. Especially if you post with my specific triggers. I don't want to have to blacklist 800 different tags.
- Things I might request to be tagged are suicidal ideation, self harm, & horror esque graphics.

Mains are blogs that you will definitely me prioritizing in regards to threads, art, and asks. They are blogs that I consider deeply while I am writing, and they are people I consider friends OOC. On this note, I do not take exclusives at all, as I want to give everyone a fair chance. I may at some time accept more than one of the same main.

a lot of this is verse dependent. pls bear with me.

PERSONALITY.

PART 1:

savage, bloodthirsty, cold. he's aloof and heavily burdened and tired and feels perpetually like shit. he does not have the will to care about people other than himself. he has decided he is the only person deserving of his love and will ruthlessly murder anyone who rubs him the wrong way. he's vicious and unnerving and on the verge of shukaku's takeover at all times. he's constantly vigilant and broody.

INTERMISSION

awkward , detached , withdrawn . he's trying his best to simply learn how to feel and how to learn how others feel . he wants to understand the world better and why people are the way they are and why they do the things they do . he's curious and conscious of everything , but he's not without his drawbacks . healing isn't linear , after all sophisticated, straight - faced, determined. he's learned to control himself and how to interact with others, despite his reserved personality. he maintains composure but does not mask his pain behind anger or confusion. he is painfully honest and bears the burdens of the kazekage at all times.

PART 2 ·

BLANK PERIOD & NEW ERA :

TBA

APPEARANCE.

FACE:

the main focus that draws your eye when looking at his face is the kanji for 'love' "②" etched in red bumpy scar tissue on the right of his forehead. another thing your muse might first notice is his lack of eyebrows or the contrast of his bright teal eyes ( and the large sleepless dark rings around them ) to the scarlet red of his hair. his face shape is heart - shaped , where his cheeks are wider and his chin has a fine dip to it. the texture of his skin when he is not hardened with sand armor is soft and untouched, save for his single scar.

PHYSIQUE

gaara is lean and athletic, but he is also under-nourished and does not take care of his needs like he should. he has potent back muscles while his arms remain thin and unhardened. his calves have distinct curves of where the muscles exist while his thighs are less developed. since he primarily fights/trains with his sand at a distance, most of his weight comes from the muscles that carry his sand gourd at all times, making his neck, back, and shoulders more strengthened than the rest of his body. this does, however, lead to some irritating neck and back pains.

CLOTHING

frankly, i doubt anyone wants to read a paragraph description of gaara's clothes when you could just look at a picture, so... here are some pictures.

part 1, intermission, part 2, blank period, new era, kazekage robes

BACKSTORY.

TW: neglect, child abuse, self - harm

**i'm going to try to keep this simple because no one wants to read 1000 paragraphs and i dont wanna write it. so there may be missing details here, but you will def be able to find fill-ins in my headcanons, and i encourage you to ask any questions.** before gaara was born, he had the one-tail demon shukaku inserted into him, causing him to become a jinchūriki (aka power of human sacrifice: humans with tailed beasts sealed in them).because of that, he was sentenced to a world of ridicule and non-acceptance. he was bullied gravely and isolated from his siblings and father, his only care taker being yashamaru (his late mother's brother) who eventually attempted to take gaara's life when he was years old and told him essentially that he never really loved him and that he was the reason his mother was dead. she died after childbirth.

rasa (gaara's father) tried to assassinate his son six different times, and the higher officials of suna (the sand village) despised him. gaara grew up lonely and no one bothered to understand him. after yashamaru's lies on rasa's behalf, gaara allows shukaku to possess him and proves himself "unworthy" to his father. after that, he etches the kanji for 'love' into his forehead (as seen in the appearance section of the bio) and vows to only love himself for himself.

then, we get into more of his part 1 self, where he's angry and tired and filled with vehement rage, wreaking destruction wherever he goes and allowing everyone's thoughts about him to be true. he becomes a ruthless murderer and does not care for the opinions, or the lives, of others. he is all he needs.

after his fight with naruto, he decides that perhaps life might be better lived letting other people in. he takes him as a form of inspiration and starts trying to learn how to behave like himself again, his real self. he has many questions and curiosities in this verse as he learns to understand other people along with himself.

in part 2, we see him fulfill his dream of becoming the kazekage and becomes the commander of the fourth division during the fourth shinobi war. he becomes a leader in and of itself, proving everyone who doubted him wrong.
