

Hey mate

I've just found your business on Google Maps.

I've seen that you've got heaps of positive feedback, which is great! I've found 3 marketing opportunities that will help you get 4-5 new clients in February-March.

My current client's only problem is that he doesn't know when to start a new project with me...

I've recorded a video, in which I tell you more details about what solutions I've found.

Would it be too forward If I sent it to you?

Until then, have a great day!
