

español I: 5.2
Saber vs. Conocer

Both of these verbs mean “_____” but each has specific times when they can be used (like ser and estar)

Conocer = To know / to be familiar with _____ Personal “a”: If you are talking about knowing a person, an “a” must be put before the person. Por ejemplo: Yo conozco _____ muchos estudiantes en PLHS.

Traduzca:

1. I know some intelligent students.

(____) _____

2. They know Paco.

3. She knows some good restaurants “in order” (para) to eat.

Contesta las preguntas:

1. ¿Conoces bien a Sr. Kalina?

2. ¿Conoces algunos buenos restaurantes italianos?

Saber = to know _____

Traduzca:

1. I know the word.

(____) _____

2. She knows the information.

3. He knows how to swim.

Contesta las preguntas:

1. ¿Sabes usar una computadora?

2. ¿Tus amigos y tú saben leer?